Political Economy of the Spectacle and Postmodern Caste John Asimakopoulos analyzes the political economy of the society of the spectacle a philosophical concept developed by Guy Debord and Jean Baudrillard Using the analytical tools of social science while historicizing Asimakopoulos reveals that all societies in every epoch have been and continue to be caste systems legitimized by various ideologies He concludes there is no such thing as capitalism or socialism only a caste system hidden behind capitalist ideology Key features of the book include its broad interdisciplinary nonsectarian approach with quantitative and qualitative data The Political Economy of the Spectacle and Postmodern Caste is well written and clear making it accessible to the general public A Homology Theory for Smale Spaces Ian F. Putnam, 2014-09-29 The author develops a homology theory for Smale spaces which include the basic sets for an Axiom A diffeomorphism. It is based on two ingredients. The first is an improved version of Bowen's result that every such system is the image of a shift of finite type under a finite-to-one factor map. The second is Krieger's dimension group invariant for shifts of finite type. He proves a Lefschetz formula which relates the number of periodic points of the system for a given period to trace data from the action of the dynamics on the homology groups. The existence of such a theory was proposed by Bowen in the 1970s.
