

Ancient Egypt

In ancient Egyptian land, where pyramids stand,
The Nile flows through the sand.

With golden treasures, kings once reigned,
And pharaohs' power never waned.

The Sphinx stands tall with a secret face,
The guardian of time and space.

Ancient tombs with treasures bright,
Shone under Egypt's starry night.

Hieroglyphs tell stories old,
Of wonders buried and treasures held.

So let's imagine and take a glance,
Back at Egypt's grand, ancient dance!

nightmares Communities that remain aware of potentially recurring tragedies are often advantaged in their efforts to avert or ameliorate worst case scenarios For this and other reasons pharaonic and Greco Roman Egyptians preserved intergenerational memories of hunger and suffering This Element begins with a consideration of the trajectories typical of severe Nilotic famines and the concept of social memory It then argues that personal reflection and literature prophecy and an annual festival of remembrance functioned at different times and with varying degrees of success to convince the well fed that famines had the power to unseat established order and to render a comfortably familiar world unrecognizable
