10th Guide Sociology Starks Study:

Guerrillas and Revolution in Latin America Timothy P. Wickham-Crowley, 2018-06-26 In this comparative survey of guerrilla movements in Latin America Timothy Wickham Crowley explores the origins and outcomes of rural insurgencies in nearly a dozen cases since 1956 Focusing on the personal backgrounds of the guerrillas themselves and on national social conditions the author explains why guerrillas emerged strongly in certain countries but not others He considers for example under what circumstances guerrillas acquire military strength and why they do or do not secure substantial support from the peasantry in rural areas

A Sociological Analysis of the Theology of Quakers Pink Dandelion, 1996 This text represents a major sociological investigation into present day Quakerism in Britain Its main focus is how belief has become individuated within the group and the consequences of this postmodern condition It is argued that Quakers in Britain have become post Christian and that unity and cohesion are provided by adherence to a behavioural creed that a liberal belief culture operates alongside a conservative and conformist culture The relationship between these two aspects of the Quaker double culture is explored as is the way aspects of the behavioural creed especially the sacralization of silence have accommodated and promoted a paradigmatic shift in the nature of Quaker theology in the last 30 years a silent revolution The study examines alternative ways in which membership of a group can be constructed how apparently contradictory sets of values can be accommodated within a single culture how liberalism can be both promoted and constrained simultaneously and how organizational change can occur without any explicit or common agreement over the nature of change

Sociology Rodney Stark, 1996 Includes bibliographical references and index glossary Studying Religion and Society Titus Hjelm, Phil Zuckerman, 2013 How do you study religion and society In this fascinating book some of the most famous names in the field explain how they go about their everyday work of studying religions in the field They explain how the ideas for their projects and books have come together how their understanding of religion has changed over the years and how their own beliefs have affected their work They also comment on the changing nature of the field the ideas which they regard as most important and those which have not stood the test of time Lastly they offer advice to young scholars and suggest what needs to be done to enable the field to grow and develop further

The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion Lewis Ray Rambo, Charles E. Farhadian, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion offers a comprehensive exploration of the dynamics of religious conversion which for centuries has profoundly shaped societies cultures and individuals throughout the world Scholars from a wide array of religions and disciplines interpret both the varieties of conversion experiences and the processes that inform this personal and communal phenomenon This volume examines the experiences of individuals and communities who change religions those who experience an intensification of their religion of origin and those who encounter new religions through colonial intrusion missionary work and charismatic and revitalization movements The thirty two innovative essays provide overviews of the history of particular religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Sikhism Islam Christianity Judaism indigenous religions and new religious movements The essays also offer a wide range of disciplinary perspectives psychological sociological anthropological legal political feminist and geographical on methods and theories deployed in understanding conversion and insight into various forms of deconversion Religion and AIDS in Africa Jenny Trinitapoli,Alexander Weinreb,2012-07-09 The first comprehensive empirical account of how religion affects the interpretation prevention and mitigation of AIDS in Africa the world s most religious continent Research Involving Human Biological Materials United States. National Bioethics Advisory Commission,1999 International Management Manfred Fuchs,2022-10-26 This textbook for students and practitioners offers answers to the most important questions and challenges of international management The main topics are presented and discussed on three levels a the macroeconomic and institutional environment of the global economy b the international firms embedded as players in this environment and c the actual management decisions The focus is placed both on the characteristics of the individual subject areas macro meso and microperspective and on the interdependent connections between these areas The main interest of this book lies in an application oriented analysis of the central strategic management decisions in internationalizing companies This textbook has been recommended and developed for university courses in Germany Austria and Switzerland Making It Ellen T. Meiser,2024-10-11 The restaurant industry is one of the few places in America where workers from lower class backgrounds can rise to positions of power and prestige Yet with over four million cooks and food preparation workers employed in America s restaurants not everyone makes it to the high status position of chef What factors determine who rises the ranks in this fiercely competitive pressure cooker environment Making It explores how the career path of restaurant workers depends on their accumulation of kitchen capital a cultural asset based not only on their ability to cook but also on how well they can fit into the workplace culture and negotiate its hierarchical structures After spending 120 hours working in a restaurant kitchen and interviewing fifty chefs and cooks from fine dining establishments and greasy spoon diners across the country sociologist Ellen Meiser discovers many strategies for accumulating kitchen capital For some it involves education and the performance of expertise others climb the ranks by controlling their own emotions or exerting control over coworkers Making It offers a close and personal look at how knowledge power and interpersonal skills come together to determine who succeeds and who fails in the high pressure world of the restaurant kitchen Tradition as Resource or Constraint for Strategic Action Gino Cattani,Simone Ferriani,Innan Sasaki,2025-08-27 Spanning industries from fashion to sports and from gastronomy to design the researchers present a meticulously curated anthology of research discussing the dual role of tradition as both a stabilizing anchor and a springboard for strategic change
