Essay Writing

Television has had a huge influence on the culture of many societies.

To what extent do you think television has positively or negatively affected the cultural development of your society?

#Model Essay

Ever since the introduction of the first TV sets to Canadian households, people from all walks of life have been discussing the influence on TV on their society. I, for one, tend to have a mixed view on the role of the small screen on the culture of my country.

To start with, television damages culture in that it promotes the stronger cultures of countries such the US and weakens the cultures of less wealthy countries. This is mainly because the stronger, wealthier countries are able to assert their own culture by producing more programs that are broadcast widely around the globe. These programs then influence people, particularly young people, in countries where they are shown.

More importantly, since television networks need to attract large audiences to secure their financial survival, they must produce programs which are interesting to a wide range of people. In my home country, this range is very broad as we are a multicultural society and people of all ages like to watch
