contractual liability arising out of damage caused to another is one of the three main non contractual obligations dealt with in the Draft of a Common Frame of Reference The law of non contractual liability arising out of damage caused to another in the common law known as tort law or the law of torts but in most other jurisdictions referred to as the law of delict is the area of law which determines whether one who has suffered a damage can on that account demand reparation in money or in kind from another with whom there may be no other legal connection than the causation of damage itself Besides determining the scope and extent of responsibility for dangers of one s own or another s creation this field of law serves to
