120 Winning Principles Of Relational Challenges Therese Alaba, 2014 The Black PhD Experience William Ackah, Jacqueline Darkwa, Wayne A. Mitchell, De-Shaine Murray, Madina Wane, 2024-09-10 This unique book charts the journeys of Black doctoral students through UK higher education Using powerful firsthand accounts the book details the experiences of Black PhD students From application through to graduation and beyond the book offers key insights into the workings of higher education highlighting the structural barriers that impede progress Challenges and recommendations are issued for the sector and wider community This text is a witness to the tenacity and brilliance of Black students to achieve against the odds A game changer for the sector Essential reading for anyone interested in equity and inclusion in higher education Legal Aspects of Economic Integration in Africa Richard Frimpong Oppong, 2011-07-07 Richard Frimpong

Oppong challenges the view that effective economic integration in Africa is hindered by purely socio economic political and infrastructural problems Inspired by the comparative experiences of other regional economic communities and imbued with insights from constitutional public and private international law he argues that even if the socio economic political and infrastructural challenges were to disappear the state of existing laws would hinder any progress Using a relational framework as the fulcrum of analyses he demonstrates that in Africa s economic integration processes community state inter state and inter community legal relations have neither been carefully thought through nor situated on a solid legal framework and that attempts made to provide legal framework have been incomplete and sometimes grounded on questionable assumptions To overcome these problems and aid the economic integration agenda that is essential for Africa s long term economic growth and development the author proposes radical reforms to community and national laws

Therapeutic Community for Women Prisoners Elaine Player, Elaine Genders, 2025-09-02 Based upon an extensive empirical study of a democratic therapeutic community for women serving long and medium sentences this book explores the opportunities it provided for restorative rehabilitation In so doing it identifies some of the interconnected ways in which these ambitions are undermined by pervasive yet often tacit assumptions that underly penal policies and practices Drawing on a wealth of data gathered from a study spanning a period of eighteen years at the only democratic therapeutic community for women prisoners in the UK the book highlights how feminist criminology has revealed an invidious history of women s treatment in prison demonstrating how reformist and rehabilitative interventions have reproduced and exacerbated existing states of inequality and oppression Consequently the question explored in this book is whether a proportionate sentence that imposes a loss of liberty is inevitably destined to this fate or whether it can be constructed in ways that are progressive and transformative By identifying and understanding some of the interconnected ways in which progressive efforts have typically been undermined it opens a debate about the insinuation of certain often unspoken assumptions that underly penal policies and practices and the need for their deconstruction It opens an axiomatic debate about how women imprisoned for serious offences might have that loss of liberty interpreted to facilitate a restorative reparative and reintegrative process of rehabilitation informed by principles of social justice This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of criminology feminist studies public policy and human rights It will also be of value to policymakers and practitioners in women s prisons and psychologists and psychiatrists interested in therapeutic communities Resources in Education ,2001-10 Psychiatry Roderick

Shaner,2000-01-01 Now in its updated Second Edition BRS Psychiatry is geared specifically to medical students preparing for USMLE Step 2 and course exams The book consists of a well structured easy to read outline review and 500 USMLE style questions with annotated answers This format has proven extremely useful in helping students recall important information You can drastically reduce the time you spend reviewing and preparing for Psychiatry clerkship and the USMLE Step 2

Managing Knowledge Networks J. David Johnson,2009-10 The information context of the modern organization is rapidly evolving in the face of intense global competition Information technologies including databases new telecommunications systems and software for synthesizing information make a vast array of information available to an ever expanding number of organizational members Management s exclusive control over knowledge is steadily declining in part because of the downsizing of organizations and the decline of the number of layers in an organizational hierarchy These trends as well as issues surrounding the Web 2 0 and social networking mean that it is increasingly important that we understand how informal knowledge networks impact the generation capturing storing dissemination and application of knowledge This innovative book provides a thorough analysis of knowledge networks focusing on how relationships contribute to the creation of knowledge its distribution within organizations how it is diffused and transferred and how people find it and share it collaboratively
