Rethinking Learning in an Age of Digital Fluency Maggi Savin-Baden,2015-03-05 This is a book that I am going to have to own and will work to find contexts in which to recommend It cuts obliquely through so many important domains of evidence and scholarship that it cannot but be a valuable stimulus Hamish Macleod University of Edinburgh Digital connectivity is a phenomenon of the 21st century and while many have debated its impact on society few have researched relationship between the changes taking place and the actual impact on learning Rethinking Learning in an Age of Digital Fluency examines what kind of impact an increasingly connected environment is having on learning and what kind of culture it is creating within learning settings Engagement with digital media and navigating through digital spaces with ease is something that many young people appear to do well although the tangible benefits of this are unclear This book therefore will present an overview of current research and practice in the area of digital tethering whilst examining how it could be used to harness new learning and engagement practices that are fit for the modern age Questions that the book also addresses include Is being digital tethered a new learning nexus Are social networking sites spaces for co production of knowledge and spaces of inclusive learning Are students who are digitally tethered creating new learning maps and pedagogies Does digital tethering enable students to use digital media to create new learning spaces This fascinating and at times controversial text engages with numerous aspects of digital learning amongst undergraduate students including mobile learning individual and collaborative learning viral networking self publication and identity dissemination It will be of enormous interest to researchers and students in education and educational psychology 21st-Century Statecraft Nayef Al-Rodhan,2022-07-28 From civilisational frontier risks associated with new challenges like disruptive technologies to the shifting nature of great power conflicts and subversion the 21st century requires a new approach to statecraft In 21st Century Statecraft Professor Nayef Al Rodhan proposes five innovative statecraft concepts He makes the case for a new method of geopolitical analysis called meta geopolitics and for dignity based governance He shows how in an interdependent and interconnected world traditional thinking must move beyond zero sum games and focus on multi sum and symbiotic realist interstate relations This requires a new paradigm of global security premised on five dimensions of security and a new concept of power just power which highlights the centrality of justice to state interests These concepts enable states to balance competing interests and work towards what the author calls reconciliation statecraft Throughout Professor Al Rodhan brings his philosophical and neuroscientific expertise to bear providing a practical model for conducting statecraft in a sustainable way

Inside Education Stephen O'Brien,2015-12-22 To learn more about learning what it is and how it works it is necessary to look inside education Inside Education takes the reader on a journey of four live education projects the first all Irish speaking mixed gendered multi faith primary school in the Republic of Ireland ideally suited to exploring learning identity an alternative post primary school for those who leave or are left behind by the formal education system also based in the Republic of Ireland and ideally suited to exploring personal learning an early college school that enables students to simultaneously sit their high school diploma and college exams based in Queens New York and ideally suited to exploring learning success and an adult education training centre that works with landless movement members based in Brazil and ideally suited to exploring learning power Using a critical ethnography approach each research narrative naturally unfolds enfolds to tell a more complete learning story All those interested in education are primed readers By re viewing their own learning outlook they may begin to advance deeper critical ideas and debates in education They may come to re represent education reminding public consciousness of its human stories as well as its curious intricate and powerful qualities And they may re discover other roads to raise a scholar Teachers educational researchers parents and guardians will be particularly interested readers Inside Education is a thought provoking challenging and revealing journey inside the world of education and learning Its exploration of school and classroom practices in a range of different settings provides important insights into how we learn a central aspect of our education system which remains overlooked and understudied In doing so it lays down a challenge to policy makers and educators everywhere to think differently about the way we learn and ultimately help students fulfil their real potential Carl O'Brien Chief Reporter for The Irish Times Inside Education is a stunning example of passionate scholarship that nonetheless refuses a redemptionist stance The ethnography captures people and contexts and draws the reader into the four sites of learning in fluent and lyrical prose This is facilitated by the
