

Colonial Brochure Performance Task:

Students will choose a colony and create a brochure to advertise their chosen colony for settlers. Again, the purpose of the brochure is to try to convince people in England to come and settle in that colony.

The brochure must include graphics (pictures, charts, graphs, maps, etc.), a description of the colony's culture, description of population (number and country of origin), notable/famous settlers, colony's physical features and a detailed description of the economy.

* Remember: Since you are trying to convince people to settle in your colony, you should be using persuasive language! Also, all information MUST come from the colonial period (1607- 1776). Do not use any information from after that time.
