The Gladstone Diaries: Volume 10: January 1881-June 1883 W. E. Gladstone, 1990-03 The tenth and eleventh volumes of Gladstone's diaries 1881-1886 cover the years of his dramatic second and third administrations The second administration confronted a series of crises the Land League Campaign and the Phoenix Park murders Majuba Hill and South Africa Gordon and the Sudan and the obstruction of franchise reform by the House of Lords The administration met these with determined assertion of administrative and legislative reforms more coherent in policy and more consistent in practice than is often realized Gladstone's third administration in 1886 attempted to pacify Ireland by granting Home Rule and in doing so provided one of the most exciting and controversial twelve months in British politics since the Civil War These volumes include not only the daily text of Gladstone's private diaries maintained almost without a break but also all of his Cabinet Minutes hitherto unpublished and themselves a remarkable and for the Victorian period unique diary of decision making There are over 1400 of the letters the vast majority hitherto unpublished which he wrote in those years These letters flesh out the daily diary and the Cabinet Minutes and cover the Church the Queen and the Court literature theatre art and domestic affairs There is much material in these volumes on Gladstone s unsuccessful but repeated attempts to retire from political office The volumes offer an extraordinary narrative of great force a remarkable mixture of achievement and disappointment of bold legislation and administrative and political disasters They display some of the innermost thoughts of an astonishing political personality which mesmerized contemporaries and has continued to fascinate historians and general readers
