Exploring Curriculum Landscapes in Africa Oscar Koopman, Karen J. Koopman, Wally Lumadi, Samuel

Amponsah, 2025-06-13 This book examines post colonial curriculum transformation across seven African nations These are South Africa Egypt Cameroon Nigeria Zimbabwe Namibia and Ghana It investigates whether these educational systems have truly decolonized their curricula or still remain rooted in Western frameworks despite achieving political independence Through analysis of curriculum policies and teaching practices the authors explore educational reform dynamics in post colonial African contexts The book evaluates how successfully these systems have incorporated indigenous knowledge and local ways of knowing versus continuing to propagate Western paradigms The work provides both theoretical and empirical analysis of challenges and opportunities in rebuilding African education systems that reflect local cultural values while addressing modern educational needs Curriculum Development and Implementation Mkp A. Jakinda, Micheal Hangerior Saaondo, 2023-01-06 TOPICS IN THE BOOK Gender Difference in Performance in Four Science Subjects in Borno State Colleges of Education Application of Demonstration Strategy and Computer Aided Instruction on Students Acquisition of Keyboarding Skills A Review of Its Effects Investigating the Influence of Social Support Factors on Retention of Boys in Public Secondary Schools in Marsabit County Effective Teaching of Physical Education to Learners with Visual Disability A Literature Review Impact of Insecurity on Curriculum Implementation at Tertiary Institutions in Benue State Nigeria West Africa Changing Educational Assessment Patricia

Broadfoot, Roger Murphy, Harry Torrance, 2012 Assessment is a key area of interest and debate in education Its increased use by governments as a powerful means of influencing educational practice are now features of the educational scene worldwide This volume was the first major international review of such developments and it explores the impact of assessment on all areas of education from teaching skills to policy making The contributors take a global perspective to spotlight the common problems facing teachers and students policy makers and politicians through the world as they seek to reconcile issues of equity and national development educational imperatives and finite state resources The contributions discuss the changing role of assessment and public examinations and consider such specific issues as the development of a market economy in educational provision the difficulties of measuring standards in international studies and accreditation of absolute rather than relative competencies Educational Innovation in Developing Countries Keith M. Lewin, Janet S. Stuart, 2016-01-01 Because of the insights offered the book under review should be compulsory reading for Ministers of Education and educational planners as well as for students of educational reform They would find it readable informative and disturbing This could well become a classic account of why innovations fail Keith Watson Department of Education Studies and Management University of Reading Educational investment is now back at the top of the development agenda The World Conference on Education for All confirmed the commitment of national governments and donors to provide opportunities for all children to enrol in school and reach minimum levels of achievement This book takes a new look at the problems that confront politicians planners curriculum developers and teachers in implementing educational innovations in developing countries The insights into theory and practice that emerge provide the intellectual yeast for the development of effective innovation strategies for the next decade Journal of Qualitative Education ,2013-05
