Global Health 101 Skolnik, 2016 Rated by an independent panel as the best introductory Global Health text for undergraduates Global Health 101 Third Edition is a clear concise and user friendly introduction to the most critical issues in global health It illustrates key themes with an extensive set of case studies examples and the latest evidence Particular attention is given to the health development link to developing countries and to the health needs of poor and disadvantaged people The Third Edition is a thorough revision that offers an extensive amount of new and updated information while maintaining clarity simplicity and ease of use for faculty and students Offering the latest data on the burden of disease the book presents unique content on key topics that are often insufficiently covered in introductory materials such as immunization and adolescent health

Social Capital and Enterprise in the Modern State Éidín Ní Shé, Lorelle J. Burton, Patrick Alan Danaher, 2018-02-22 Given the global crises confronting the world today it is important to interrogate the notion of the modern state and to evaluate its effectiveness in providing security and services for its populations including the most disadvantaged and vulnerable This book investigates the modern state's capacity to serve its constituents by examining the organisations that facilitate two key elements of contemporary living social capital and social enterprise These elements are explored in a series of rich case studies located in Australia Ireland and Bangladesh with broader implications for policy and practice in the rest of the world The case studies highlight the growing importance of social enterprise and social entrepreneurship in fostering social capital and in contributing to the idea of the enabling state This book will appeal to researchers policy makers and community leaders working in business education employment pathways homelessness housing local government mental health public administration and refugee resettlement

Financing of Organised Crime Center for the Study of Democracy, University of Trento, Teesside University, 2015 The report Financing of Organised Crime contributes to a better understanding of the financial aspects of organised crime The analysis explores topics such as the sources and mechanisms for financing organised crime settlement of payments access to financing in critical moments costs of business and the management of profits Drawing on the results of the analysis the report also suggests possible new approaches to tackling organised crime

Energy Democracy Denise Fairchild, Al

Weinrub,2017-10-12 The near unanimous consensus among climate scientists is that the massive burning of gas oil and coal is having cataclysmic impacts on our atmosphere and climate These climate and environmental impacts are particularly magnified and debilitating for low income communities and communities of color Energy democracy tenders a response and joins the environmental and climate movement with broader movements for social and economic change in this country and around the world Energy Democracy brings together racial cultural and generational perspectives to show what an alternative democratized energy future can look like The book will inspire others to take up the struggle to build the energy democracy movement

Small is Necessary Anitra Nelson,2018-01-20 Does small mean less Not necessarily In an era of housing crises environmental unsustainability and social fragmentation the need for more sociable affordable and sustainable housing is vital The answer Shared living from joint households to land sharing cohousing and ecovillages Using successful examples from a range of countries Anitra Nelson shows how eco collaborative housing resident driven low impact living with shared facilities and activities can address the great social economic and sustainability challenges that householders and capitalist societies face today Sharing living spaces and facilities results in householders having more amenities and opportunities for neighbourly interaction Small is Necessary places contemporary models of alternative housing and living at centre stage arguing that they are outward looking culturally rich with low ecological footprints and offer governance techniques for a more equitable and sustainable future

Pediatric Cancer Survivors Karen Wonders,Brittany Stout,2017-06-07 Pediatric cancer develops in 1 to 500 children Typically the type of cancers that develop in children is different than those that develop in adults in that they are often the result of a DNA mutation rather than environmental or lifestyle risk factors Leukemia brain and central nervous system tumors and neuroblastomas are the most common cancer types in child populations Children tend to respond better to anticancer treatments including chemotherapy and radiation However long term side effects are common in children often requiring follow up care and lifestyle intervention for the rest of their lives The percentage of 5 year survivors was over 50% for the most common cancers This suggests that a majority of cancers in this population are highly survivable As such research should focus on aspects of survivorship for these individuals This book will explore issues related to pediatric cancer and their associated treatments

Stratospheric Ozone Damage and Legal Liability Lisa Elges,2016-12-19 While government enforcement of laws and regulations to control the production of chlorofluorocarbons in 1987 has been hailed as exemplifying the precautionary principle for almost two decades US companies failed to take precautionary measures to prevent chemical emissions despite the probable risk of stratospheric ozone loss As a result human harms in the form of skin cancer have reached epidemic proportions globally and in the United States where today one person dies every hour from skin cancer This book reviews U S laws regulations and policies as well as case law regarding similar toxic tort cases to consider whether companies can and should be held legally liable under tort common law theories and related tort justice theories for having contributed to increased risks of skin cancer Sport
