I like sizzling sausages.
I like bubbling beans.
I like mashed potatoes
With gravy and greens.

I like cold ice-cream.
I like chocolate cakes.
But most of all I like
The jellies my Mum makes.

Alliteration Food Poems:

Food, Poetry, and the Aesthetics of Consumption Michel Delville, 2012-08-06 From Plato's dismissal of food as a distraction from thought to Kant's relegation of the palate to the bottom of the hierarchy of the senses the sense of taste has consistently been devalued by Western aesthetics Kant is often invoked as evidence that philosophers consider taste as an inferior sense because it belongs to the realm of the private and subjective and does not seem to be required in the development of higher types of knowledge From a gastrosophical perspective however what Kant perceives as a limitation becomes a new field of enquiry that investigates the dialectics of diet and discourse self and matter inside and outside The essays in this book examine the importance of food as a pivotal element both materially and conceptually in the history of the Western avant garde From Gertrude Stein to Alain Robbe Grillet and Samuel Beckett from F T Marinetti to Andy Warhol from Marcel Duchamp to Eleanor Antin the examples chosen explore the conjunction of art and foodstuff in ways that interrogate contemporary notions of the body language and subjectivity Scottish Alliterative Poems in Riming Stanzas François J.
