Composing Teacher-Research Cathy Fleischer, 1995-03-02 In Composing Teacher Research the author provides a much needed critical look at the teacher research movement by recounting her own experiences over the past decade Informed by readings in a number of disciplines and by her own classroom practice Fleischer documents the shifts and changes she made as a teacher when she took on the additional role of researcher The book presents four case studies of classrooms and students at both the high school and college level focusing on the ways students see their own literacy in and out of school Fleischer not only reproduces these case studies as they were written at various points in her journey but provides commentary through pre and post scripts in which she points out particular issues of concern for those who practice classroom research what it means to represent others experiences how we can create research which is at the same time ethical and pedagogically sound how the stakes for being a teacher researcher have changed in a postmodern world The North American Muslim Resource Guide Mohamed Nimer,2014-01-21 This useful resource provides basic information about Islamic life in the United States Coverage includes population statistics and analysis as well as immigration information that tracks the settlement of Islamic people in the America The guide contains contact information for mosques community organizations schools women s groups media and student groups Recent Islamic American events over the past five years are also reviewed To see the Introduction the table of contents a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the The North American Muslim Resource Guide website

The Complete Works of Washington Irving (Illustrated) Washington Irving,2022-11-13 In the compendium entitled The Complete Works of Washington Irving Illustrated readers are invited to explore the rich tapestry of American literature through Irving s masterful storytelling and keen observational wit This illustrated collection encapsulates his renowned tales including The Legend of Sleepy Hollow and Rip Van Winkle which are imbued with a blend of humor nostalgia and social critiques The text showcases Irving s eloquent prose and his ability to intertwine the fantastical with the mundane reflecting the early 19th century literary context that sought to define an American identity distinct from European influences Washington Irving often hailed as the father of American literature was a man of diverse pursuits including law diplomacy and journalism His travels across Europe and deep appreciation for both American folklore and European romanticism shaped his literary voice Irving s writing emerged from a time of burgeoning national consciousness and cultural self definition allowing him to weave compelling narratives that engaged with the American landscape and its mythos This illustrated edition is highly recommended for both avid readers and scholars alike as it presents an opportunity to delve into Irving s extensive oeuvre Not only does it illuminate the foundational elements of American storytelling but it also invites readers to appreciate the timeless nature of his work and its ongoing resonance in contemporary literature Claiming a Tradition Mary Jo Bona,1999 Mary Jo Bona reconstructs the literary history and examines the narrative techniques of eight Italian American women s novels from 1940 to the present Largely neglected until recently these women s family narratives compel a reconsideration of what it means to be a woman and an ethnic in America Bona discusses the novels in pairs according to their focus on Italian American life She first examines the traditions of italianit a flavor of things Italian that inform and enhance works of fiction The novelists in that tradition were Mari Tomasi Like Lesser Gods 1949 and Marion Benasutti No Steady Job for Papa 1966 Bona then turns to later novels that highlight the Italian American belief in the family s honor and reputation Conflicts between generations specifically between autocratic fathers and their children are central to Octavia Waldo s 1961 A Cup of the Sun and Josephine Gattuso Hendin s 1988 The Right Thing to Do Even when writers choose to steer away from the familial focus Bona notes their developmental narratives trace the reintegration of characters suffering from a crisis of cultural identity Relating the characters struggles to their relationship to the family Bona examines

Diana Cavallo's 1961 A Bridge of Leaves and Dorothy Bryant's 1978 Miss Giardino Bona then discusses two innovative novels Helen Barolini's 1979 Umbertina and Tina De Rosa's 1980 Paper Fish both of which feature a granddaughter who invokes her grandmother a godparent figure Through Barolini's feminist and De Rosa's modernist perspectives both novels present a young girl developing artistically Closing with a discussion of the contemporary terrain Italian American women traverse Bona examines such topics as sexual identity when it meets cultural identity and the inclusion of Italianity when Italian American identity is not central to the story Italian American women writers she concludes continue in the 1980s and 1990s to focus on the interplay between cultural identity and women's development
