Learning Space Jeremy Delamarter, 2025-01-13 As a genre science fiction is uniquely suited for highlighting and modeling the basic tenets of critical pedagogy that branch of educational philosophy and theory devoted equally to 1 exposing the hidden power structures embedded in educational practice and 2 articulating equitable and sustainable alternatives The science fiction novum that is the technological or scientific newness found within the text serves as a catalyst not only within the textual universe but also potentially within the universe of the reader New questions arise Previously hidden beliefs come to light Tacit assumptions are exposed The unfamiliar nova of science fiction can lead to new interrogations of our own all too familiar surroundings causing us to see our previously unquestioned worlds in a new way These new understandings are at the heart of critical pedagogy The learning spaces within science fiction texts can expose the fault lines within the educational structures of the real world Questions about what it means to be human about the proper limits of technological power or about the relationships and obligations of one species to another have profound implications for 21st century educators and learners particularly those who are interested in creating just and equitable learning spaces Learning Space Exploring Critical Pedagogy through Science Fiction draws on popular science fiction stories to provide current and future educators with the language concepts vocabulary and practices to cast a critical lens upon their own learning spaces and their own pedagogical practices For example a critical examination of the way that Yoda trains Luke Skywalker in The Empire Strikes Back reveals a great deal about the insidious nature of deficit thinking assuming that students learn best when they empty their minds and remain passive The assumed hierarchical power structure between teacher and student and the assumed relationship between learners and the knowledge with which they are supposed to be filled all of these are called into question when viewed through a critical lens The more we recognize the injustice in Yoda's pedagogy the more we might begin to see it in our own Similarly Isaac Asimov's classic Foundation trilogy imagines a world in which mathematical modeling and statistical computation are used not only to predict what people might do but instead to determine what they should do This kind of algorithmic determinism is unfortunately common in contemporary education and yet far too few educators and learners recognize just how much of their own agency has been given over to the machines By highlighting the algorithmic inequities in the world of Asimov's text we begin to recognize similar inequities at play in our own world Ultimately this book uses science fiction to highlight educational inequities in such wide ranging topics as standard English literary canons machine learning notions of academic dishonesty epistemicide inequitable school discipline and more More importantly however it provides a framework for moving forward giving current and future educators the critical knowledge and skills both to recognize pedagogical injustice and to create viable just and sustainable alternatives

Young Adult and Canonical Literature Paula Greathouse, Victor Malo-Juvera, 2021-03-10 In the last decade alone the world has changed in seismic ways as marriage equality has been ruled on by the supreme court social justice issues such as metoo and BlackLivesMatter have arisen and issues of immigration and deportation have come to the forefront of politics across the globe Thus there is a need for an updated text that shares strategies for combining canonical and young adult literature that reflects the changes society has and continues to experience The purpose of our collection is to offer secondary 6-12 teachers engaging ideas and approaches for pairing young adult and canonical novels to provide unique examinations of topics that teaching either text in isolation could not afford Our collection does not center canonical texts and most chapters show how both texts complement each other rather than the young adult text being only an extension of the canonical Within each volume the chapters are organized chronologically according to the publication date of the canonical text The pairings offered in this collection allow for comparisons in some cases for extensions in others and for critique in all

A Heart at Fire's Center Steven C. Smith, 2002-05-31 No composer contributed more to film than Bernard Herrmann who in over 40 scores enriched the work of such directors as Orson Welles Alfred Hitchcock François Truffaut and Martin Scorsese In this first major biography of the composer Steven C Smith explores the interrelationships between Herrmann's music and his turbulent personal life using much previously unpublished information to illustrate Herrmann's often outrageous behavior his working methods and why his music has had such lasting impact From his first film Citizen Kane to his last Taxi Driver Herrmann was a master of evoking psychological nuance and dramatic tension through music often using unheard of instrumental combinations to suit the dramatic needs of a film His scores are among the most distinguished ever written ranging from the fantastic Fahrenheit 451 The Day the Earth Stood Still to the romantic Obsession The Ghost and Mrs Muir to the terrifying Psycho Film was not the only medium in which Herrmann made a powerful mark His radio broadcasts included Orson Welles s Mercury Theatre on the Air and The War of the Worlds His concert music was commissioned and performed by the New York Philharmonic and he was chief conductor of the CBS Symphony Almost as celebrated as these achievements are the enduring legends of Herrmann s combativeness and volatility Smith separates myth from fact and draws upon heretofore unpublished material to illuminate Herrmann s life and influence Herrmann remains as complex as any character in the films he scored a creative genius an indefatigable musicologist an explosive bully a generous and compassionate man who desperately sought friendship and love Films scored by Bernard Herrmann Citizen Kane The Ghost and Mrs Muir Vertigo Psycho Fahrenheit 451 Taxi Driver The Magnificent Ambersons The Man Who Knew Too Much North By Northwest The Birds The Snows of Kilimanjaro Cape Fear Marnie Torn Curtain among others

A Companion to François Truffaut

Dudley Andrew, Anne Gillain, 2013-02-11 A Companion to François Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut's most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut's relationships to André Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his ground breaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him François Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut's value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker's background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut's controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this essential volume
