many youth workers engage their students in serving the least the last and the lost As good and helpful as these things may be on the surface that s where they remain at the surface The problems run far deeper than an occasional paint job or fundraising project can solve But it s not hopeless Deep social justice is possible in your youth ministry Following their bestselling book Deep Ministry in a Shallow World Kara Powell and Chap Clark provide you with research and insights that will help your ministry get to the next level In addition to helping you further understand the Deep Design method introduced in their previous book their practical Kingdom of God theology will help you go beyond simply trying to motivate your students to serve those in need and invite your students and maybe even your leaders to wrestle with why those people are in need in the first place You ll hear from well known social justice leaders and youth workers who are making a difference in urban suburban and small town settings including Jim Wallis Sojourners Tony Campolo Eastern University Lina Thompson World Vision Vision Youth John Perkins Christian Community Development Association Shane Claiborne The Simple Way Larry Acosta Urban Youth Workers Institute Rudy Carrasco Harambee Christian Family Center Jeremy Del Rio Community Solutions Inc Noel Castellanos Christian Community Development Association and more In addition to expanding your personal justice commitments Deep Justice in a Broken World will help you reflect with your own leadership team and will provide you with online resources to take you even deeper into the journey So go ahead dig deeper into what it means to heal the broken world in which we live Take your ministry deeper into social justice Teaming Up Ginny Ward

Holderness,1997-01-01 Bestselling Christian educator Ginny Holderness refocuses the attention on leadership in the youth ministry to young people themselves Holderness and coauthor Robert Hay expand on her original team approach to include young people in the leadership team Successfully implemented in many church programs already this expanded approach to team building ensures that young people take ownership of their youth ministries Popular Music Graham

Vulliamy,Edward Lee,2016-04-14 The approach of this book first published in 1982 is multi disciplinary Popular music it is argued is not only a musical but also a social phenomenon the criteria needed to assess it are different from those used in the appreciation of classical music The first section of this guide is devoted to setting out just what those criteria should be A second section puts forward bases for course construction that are detailed and flexible A final section provides a list of further resources Elusive Togetherness Paul Lichterman,2012-01-06 Many scholars and citizens alike have counted on civic groups to create broad ties that bind society Some hope that faith based civic groups will spread their reach as government retreats Yet few studies ask how if at all civic groups reach out to their wider community Can religious groups long central in civic America create broad empowering social ties in an unequal diverse society Over three years Paul Lichterman studied nine liberal and conservative Protestant based volunteering and advocacy projects in a mid sized American city He listened as these groups tried to create bridges with other community groups social service agencies and low income people just as the 1996 welfare reforms were taking effect Counter to long standing arguments Lichterman discovered that powerful customs of interaction inside the groups often stunted external ties and even shaped religion's impact on the groups. Comparing groups he found that successful bridges outward depend on group customs which invite reflective critical discussion about a group's place amid surrounding groups and institutions. Combining insights from Alexis de Tocqueville, John Dewey, and Jane Addams with contemporary sociology, Elusive Togetherness addresses enduring questions about civic and religious life that elude the popular social capital concept. To create broad civic relationships, groups need more than the right religious values, political beliefs, or resources. They must learn new ways of being groups.
