Examples in An arithmetic for schools. [With] Answers Sidney Luxton Loney, 1898 Elements of Astronomy, with Numerous Examples and Examination Papers George William Parker, 1894 Youth, University, and Canadian Society Paul Axelrod, John G. Reid, 1989-04-01 Focusing on the student experience from the last quarter of the nineteenth century through the troubled 1960s this collection of fourteen essays examines university life as a part of social and intellectual history It brings to light the work of a new generation of researchers who have moved away from the narrower concern with institutional growth that has typified most historical writing in this field Contributors include Paul Axelrod Michael Behiels Judith Fingard Chad Gaffield Yves Gingras Patricia Jasen Nancy Kiefer Susan Laskin Malcolm MacLeod Lynne Marks A B McKillop Barry M Moody Diana Pederson Ruth Roach Pierson James Pitsula John G Reid and Keith Walden Neston Collieries, 1759-1855 Anthony Annakin-Smith, 2023-03-20 The extraordinary story of the two early collieries at Neston in west Cheshire has been largely overlooked by historians Yet for a time the main coal mine Ness Colliery was more successful than most of its contemporaries in nearby south west Lancashire and North Wales It was the first large industrial site in west Cheshire and introduced the area s earliest steam engine

Ethnicization and Identity Construction in Malaysia Frederik Holst, 2012-04-27 This book is the first monograph to provide an in depth and multifaceted study of the processes of ethnicization and identity construction in Malaysia from the colonial period until the present In his analysis the author takes multiple layers of ethnicization into account and shows how these have shaped Malaysia s socio political system and society in different ways Moving beyond a center focused top down oriented perception of identity politics this work highlights on the one hand the role and position of a multitude of actors from grassroots level to mainstream politics who contribute to the persistence of ethnicization in Malaysia in numerous ways On the other hand it also shows where and under which circumstances possibilities for transethnic cooperation arise A multi disciplinary approach substantiated by empirical data based on qualitative and quantitative methodologies provides a perspective that moves beyond stereotypical narrations of Malaysia as being constituted by mainly three separate homogenous groups At the same time this book gives a detailed and comprehensive account of political and historical developments and constitutes a rich resource for any Malaysia related research While the focus of this publication lies on Malaysia the concept of manifestations and implementations of ethnicization provides an analytical framework that can also be applied in the study of ethnicization and identity construction elsewhere in the region and beyond

Notes on Issues in Jury Trials, with References to Reported Examples John Black Leslie Birnie, 1881 The Trojan War: Chronological, Historical and Archaeological Evidence Gerard Gertoux, 2015 The Trojan War is the foundation of Greek history If Greek historians had little doubt of its existence they remained extremely sceptical regarding its mythological origin Archaeology has confirmed one essential point there was indeed a general conflagration in the Greek world around 1200 BCE the assumed period of that war which caused the disappearance of two powerful empires Mycenaean on one hand and Hittite with its vassals on the other hand The inscriptions of Ramses III s year 8 describe actually a general invasion of the Mediterranean by the Sea Peoples A precise chronological reconstruction shows that there was a confrontation between a Greek heterogeneous confederation consisting of pirates and a set of vassal kingdoms of the Hittite empire such as Troy and Ugarit which ended with their complete mutual destruction in 1185 BCE the climax of the Trojan War This conclusion was already that of Eratosthenes

Centre and Province in the People's Republic of China David S. G. Goodman,1986-10-09 According to common misconception the Chinese political system is highly centralized One result of this widely accepted view is that China specialists have often neglected the study of decision making as a process Concentrating upon the neighbouring but contrasting provinces of Sichuan and Guizhou during the decade before the Cultural Revolution this book examines the interaction between centre and province and without adopting a centralist or a pluralist viewpoint argues that a spatial dimension is of necessity part of the Chinese decision making process Particular attention is paid to the variability of this interaction over time
