Implementing Corporate Social Responsibility Subhasis Ray, S. Siva Raju, 2014-03-19 This book is a compilation of Corporate Social Responsibility CSR theory and practices with special reference to the Indian context Over the last few decades which have seen the onset of globalization emergence of the industrial sector and an increased focus on community development much attention has been focused on the role of corporations towards developing those societies where their operations are based The introduction and evolution of CSR theories and practice in the developed countries has given CSR theorists and practitioners the guidance to appropriately place and implement CSR initiatives to help develop their role in the developed societies However while ample literature exists on such CSR practices little has been done to aid the development of CSR in developing countries Characterized by peculiar economic political and social settings the developing world needed its own blueprint for how CSR works and how it could best succeed The need for doing is especially pertinent to a country like India which is presently at a very crucial threshold economically politically and socially Given the need to contextualize CSR theory and practice to the developing context several CSR theories and practices have been explored in this book which will provide readers with a thorough understanding of CSR and its successful implementation

Drug-Diagnostics Co-Development in Oncology Jan Trøst Jørgensen, 2014-11-07 The idea of combining drugs and diagnostics in oncology is not new When the selective estrogen receptor modulator tamoxifen was developed in the 1970 s for the treatment of breast cancer a positive correlation between receptor status and treatment outcome was found As a result of this research it was suggested to use the estrogen receptor assay as a diagnostic test for selection of patients for tamoxifen treatment Despite this suggestion was put forward nearly 40 years ago the adaptation of the drug diagnostic co development model has been relatively slow and it is only within the last decade that it has gained more widespread acceptance The parallel development of the monoclonal antibody trastuzumab Herceptin Roche Genentech and the immunohistochemistry assay for HER2 protein overexpression HercepTest Dako seems to have served as an inspiration to a number of stakeholders such as pharma and diagnostic companies regulatory agencies and academia In recent years we have seen an increasing number of oncology drug development projects that have taken advantage of the drug diagnostic co development model as outline below Most of the new targeted anti cancer drugs that have been introduced in recent years such as BRAF ALK EGFR and HER2 inhibitors are more or less all a product of the drugdiagnostic co development model These drugs have shown remarkable high response rates in selected groups of patients within cancer diseases with great unmet medical needs This Research Topic on Drug Diagnostic Co Development in Oncology aims to provide you with an insight into some of the diverse activities that constitute this new research area
