MacKinnon,2020-02-27 Closing Sysco presents a history of deindustrialization and working class resistance in the Cape Breton steel industry between 1945 and 2001 The Sydney Steel Works is at the heart of this story having existed in tandem with Cape Breton s larger coal operations since the early twentieth century The book explores the multifaceted nature of deindustrialization the internal politics of the steelworkers union the successful efforts to nationalize the mill in 1967 the years in transition under public ownership and the confrontations over health safety and environmental degradation in the 1990s and 2000s Closing Sysco moves beyond the moment of closure to trace the cultural historical and political ramifications of deindustrialization that continue to play out in post industrial Cape Breton Island A significant intervention into the international literature on deindustrialization this study pushes scholarship beyond the bounds of political economy and cultural change to begin tackling issues of bodily health environment and historical memory in post industrial places The experiences of the men and women who were displaced by the decline and closure of Sydney Steel are central to this book Featuring interviews with former steelworkers office employees managers politicians and community activists these one on one conversations reveal both the human cost of industrial closure and the lingering after effects of deindustrialization

Tourism, Religion and Pilgrimage in Jerusalem Kobi Cohen-Hattab,Noam Shoval,2014-08-07 Jerusalem is a city with a singular nature Home to three religions it contains spiritual meaning for people the world over it is at once a tourist destination and a location with a complex political reality Tourism therefore is an integral part of Jerusalem s development and its political conflicts The book traces tourism and pilgrimage to Jerusalem from the late Ottoman era through the British Mandate during the period of the divided city and to the reunification of the city under Israeli rule Throughout the city s evolution is shown to be intertwined with its tourist industry as tourist sites accommodations infrastructure and services transform the city s structures and open spaces At the same time tourism is wielded by various parties in an effort to gain political recognition to bolster territorial control or to garner support The city s future and the role tourism can play in it are examined While the construction of a security fence will have many implications on Jerusalem s tourist industry steps are proposed to minimize the effects of the security fence and optimize tourism Written by leading academics this title will be valuable reading for students academics and researchers in the fields of tourism religious studies geography history cultural studies and anthropology Prison Capital Lydia Pelot-Hobbs,2023-10-16 Every year between 1998 to 2020 except one Louisiana had the highest per capita rate of incarceration in the nation and thus the world This is the first detailed account of

Louisiana's unprecedented turn to mass incarceration from 1970 to 2020 Through extensive research Lydia Pelot Hobbs illuminates how policy makers enlarged Louisiana's carceral infrastructures with new prisons and jail expansions alongside the bulking up of police and prosecutorial power At the same time these infrastructures were the products of multiscalar crises the swings of global oil capitalism liberal federal court and policy interventions the rise of neoliberal governance and law and order austerity and racist and patriarchal moral panics surrounding crime However these crises have also created fertile space for anticarceral social movements From incarcerated people filing conditions of confinement lawsuits and Angola activists challenging life without parole to grassroots organizers struggling to shrink the New Orleans jail following Hurricane Katrina and LGBTQ youth of color organizing against police sexual violence grassroots movements stretch us toward new geographies of freedom in the lineage of abolition democracy Understanding Louisiana's carceral crisis extends our understanding of the interplay between the crises of mass criminalization and racial capitalism while highlighting the conditions of possibility for dismantling carceral power in all its forms Skiing Into Modernity Andrew Denning, 2014-11-26 Examines the relationship between skiers and the Alpine environment since the late nineteenth century It argues that skiing and winter tourism modernized the Alps in both material and perceptual terms while the Alpine landscape itself challenged skiers to alter their practices and philosophies of sport leisure and nature harmonizing Alpine skiing with modern cultural values and social practices in the twentieth century Provided by publisher The South Seas Sean Brawley, Chris Dixon, 2015-04-21 The South Seas charts the idea of the South Seas in popular cultural productions of the English speaking world from the beginnings of the Western enterprise in the Pacific until the eve of the Pacific War Building on the notion that the influences on the creation of a text and the ways in which its audience receives the text are essential for understanding the historical significance of particular productions Sean Brawley and Chris Dixon explore the ways in which authors and producers ideas about the South Seas were haunted by others who had written on the subject and how they in turn influenced future generations of knowledge producers The South Seas is unique in its examination of an array of cultural texts Along with the foundational literary texts that established and perpetuated the South Seas tradition in written form the authors explore diverse cultural forms such as art music theater film fairs platform speakers surfing culture and tourism
