The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits,2019-09-10 This book flips your world upside down Daniel Markovits argues that meritocracy isn't a virtuous efficient system that rewards the best and brightest Instead it rewards middle class families who can afford huge investments in their children's education Frightening eye opening stuff The Times Books of the Year Even in the midst of runaway economic inequality and dangerous social division it remains an axiom of modern life that meritocracy reigns supreme and promises to open opportunity to all The idea that reward should follow ability and effort is so entrenched in our psyche that even as society divides itself at almost every turn all sides can be heard repeating meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we think we are But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy's successes This is the radical argument that The Meritocracy Trap prosecutes with rare force comprehensive research and devastating persuasion Daniel Markovits a law professor trained in philosophy and economics is better placed than most to puncture one of the dominant ideas of our age Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within as well as how we can take the first steps towards a world that might afford us both prosperity and dignity

Resources in Education, 1995-04 An Age of Accountability John L. Rury, 2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree

Localization and Quality Assessment of Project-Based Learning in China Xuemei Xia, 2025-09-17 This book provides a systematic assessment of the quality of Project Based Learning PBL and proposes a diagnostic criteria framework for evaluating project design and implementation It identifies key characteristics that vary as a result of differentiation The book offers a feasible framework for implementing competency based teaching on an international scale drawing from our long term exploration in China to address shortcomings in Chinese education Furthermore it delineates the boundaries and limitations of project based design facilitating professional learning in its implementation Educational practitioners will gain multidimensional perspectives to develop their capacities and critically reflect on PBL s impact on students learning processes The Boy Crisis Warren Farrell,John Gray,2018-03-13 What is the boy crisis It s a crisis of education Worldwide boys are 50 percent less likely than girls to meet basic proficiency in reading math and science It s a crisis of mental health ADHD is on the rise And as boys become young men their suicide rates go from equal to girls to six times that of young women It s a crisis of fathering Boys are growing up with less involved fathers and are more likely to drop out of school drink do drugs become delinquent and end up in prison It s a crisis of purpose Boys old sense of purpose being a warrior a leader or a sole breadwinner are fading Many bright boys are experiencing a purpose void feeling alienated withdrawn and addicted to immediate gratification So what is The Boy Crisis A comprehensive blueprint for what parents teachers and policymakers can do to help our sons become happier healthier men and fathers and leaders worthy of our respect
