2014 Pat Tourism Grade 11:

Tourism and Oil Susanne Becken, 2015 This book is the first to examine oil constraints and tourism and addresses one of the key challenges for the tourism industry in the future It provides an estimate of how much oil tourism consumes globally and summarises state of the art information on oil resources oil data and public discourse The volume also offers an analysis of the economic implications of increasing oil prices for tourism and discusses key dimensions relevant for tourism in a post peak oil world It will be useful for tourism stakeholders globally postgraduate students in tourism and resource management ecological economists and those researching issues of resource efficiency carrying capacity and global environmental change

Tourism Syed Abdul Rehman Khan, Zhang Yu, 2021-10-06 Tourism was booming until 2019 when the COVID 19 pandemic hit Since then tourism and related industries have suffered from negative economic impacts This book examines current challenges and opportunities in the tourism industry using case studies from different parts of the world It also examines the challenges and obstacles faced by the tourism sector due to lack of environmental policies high crime rates and poverty

Thanatourism and Cinematic Representations of Risk Rodanthi Tzanelli, 2016-04-14 In today's world the need to eliminate natural and human made disasters has been at the forefront of national and international socio political agendas The management of risks such as terrorism labour strikes protests and environmental degradation has become pivotal for countries that depend on their economy's tourist sector Indeed there is fear that the end of tourism might be nigh due to inadequate institutional foresight Yet in designing relevant policies to tackle this arts such as that of filmmaking have yet to receive due consideration This book adopts an unorthodox approach to debates about the end of tourism Through twenty first century cinematic narratives of symbolically interconnected risks it considers how art envisages the future of humanity's well being These risks include migration as an infectious disease alien incursions as racialized labour mobilities cyborg rebellion as the fear of post colonial otherness and zombie anthropophagy as the replacement of rooted identities by nomadic lifestyles Such filmic scenarios articulate the futuristic survival of community as the triumph of the technological human over otherness and provide a means to debate societal risks that weave identity politics into unequal mobilities This book will appeal to researchers and students interested in mobilities theory tourism and travel theory film studies and aesthetics globalisation studies race labour and migration argues that literary engagement with the North emphasises regional devolution s limited constitutional change calling instead for an urgent abandonment of the British centralised state form
