Answer My History Question:

The Foundations of History Stephen Leach, 2017-01-24 This book provides an exposition and critical examination of Collingwood's philosophy of history in which Collingwood's views are read in the light of his metaphilosophy Collingwood's philosophy of history is also located in relation to recent and current philosophy Although the author argues that Collingwood's conception of the subject matter of history may require some revision he is generally sympathetic to the aims and methods of Collingwood's project Indeed the author hopes to demonstrate that these aims and methods are still of great value

A Brief History of Poverty Alleviation in Neoliberal Times Anuradha Kalhan, 2019-01-01 This book is about implementation of poverty alleviation policy in recent times It follows one poverty alleviation policy called Swaran Jayanti Shahari Rozgar Yojana initiated in 1997 through three large cities Mumbai Delhi and Kochi There are specific reasons why this policy was chosen It reflects the dominant paradigm in strategy in recent times It is built on women self help group collectives microfinance and enterprise The book spans five years of fieldwork 2009-14 It reproduces the circumstances of poor urban women their families and the effect of policy designed to help them Most significantly it examines policy execution at the local level There is substantial difference in the manner in which the same policy is implemented in each city The organization for implementation is also different and outcome is noticeably different as well Consequently comparisons are useful In a manner the fieldwork also points to nature of trickle down that has occurred India by then had experienced over two decades 1990-1 and 2013-14 of higher than historic growth Large cities are high growth centres prime location of wealth accumulation as well as trickle down Travels into the ever increasing margins of urban centres were unsettling particularly in the mega cities Trickle down evidently does not take care of the problem of mass absolute poverty Direct policy interventions of several kinds are needed but overall as this volume brings out the scale of the problem is completely unrelated to public resources organization and energy applied to it

The Thinking Historian Eric W. Sager, 2025-01-27 What is history What are historians doing when we create our histories The need for answers is more urgent than ever We live in an era when history is often rejected or ignored and when all teachers of history confront formidable challenges In the culture of screen capitalism and social media historical knowledge is evaded in an expanding present minded consciousness How can history be defended and what is it that we are defending This book argues that history is a mode of thinking a form of imaginative reasoning with its own informal logic In non technical language and using examples from important works of history the book defines core elements in historical thinking These include contingency complexity temporality parts and wholes consilience perspectives analogy and abduction These elements are subsumed into the concept of imaginative reasoning The overall argument echoes the work of hermeneutic philosophers History is a disciplined imagination tempered and empowered by its forms of reasoning It embraces ethical imperatives that the historian has a duty to declare Equipped with such understanding historians may answer the many rejections of history and secure its place in our shared futures
