A Singular Man Emmanuel Bove, 1995 In a state of permanent tension and relieved moral paralysis Jean Marie Th ly an anguished bystander confined to the margins of polite society has based the whole of his existence upon the idea that he is unlike others He derives his singularity from his origins as an illegitimate child bounced from one condescendingly charitable household to another only to be rejected by the bourgeois families that raised him Restricted to an ordinary education barred from an officer s career he is unable to do what he wants and eventually becomes trapped in a life of utter indecision

Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1854 Journal of Psychological Medicine ,1857 Medical Critic and Psychological Journal ,1857 Late Modernism and Expatriation Lauren Arrington,2022-01-15 How did living abroad inflect writers perspectives on social change in the countries of their birth and in their adopted homelands How did writers reformulate ideas of social class race and gender in these new contexts How did they develop innovations in form and technique to achieve a style that reflected their social and political commitments The essays in this book show how the outward turn that typifies late modernist writing was precipitated in part by writers experience of expatriation Late Modernism Expatriation encompasses writing from the 1930s to the present day and considers expatriation in both its voluntary and coerced manifestations Together the essays in this book shape our understanding of how migration especially in its late twentieth and twenty first century complexities affects late modernism s temporalities The book attends to major theoretical questions about mapping late modernist networks and it foregrounds neglected aspects of writers work while placing other writers in a new frame

The Rough and Ready Annual ,1848 Lacanian Psychoanalysis and Eastern Orthodox Christian Anthropology in Dialogue Carl Waitz,Theresa Tisdale,2021-10-26 This book vigorously engages Lacan with a spiritual tradition that has yet to be thoroughly addressed within psychoanalytic literature the Eastern Orthodox Christian tradition The book offers a unique engagement with a faith system that highlights and extends analytic thinking For those in formation within the Orthodox tradition this book brings psychoanalytic insights to bear on matters of faith that may at times seem opaque or difficult to understand Ultimately the authors seek to elicit in the reader the reflective and contemplative posture of Orthodoxy as well as the listening ear of analysis while considering the human subject This work is relevant and important for those training in psychoanalysis and Orthodox theology or ministry as well as for those interested in the intersection between psychoanalysis and religion

The Narrow Gate L. Abbott, 2025-07-22 Do all good people go to heaven Some religions indicate that our eternity is based on our good works Although being a good person is important it is not the deciding factor according to the Bible The Bible says God's requirement for entering heaven is being 100 percent perfect and sinless The reality is no one has ever lived a perfect sinless life except Jesus How was He able to do that Jesus is a member of the triune Godhead Father Son and Holy Spirit This is not three gods it is one God with three identities similar to how people on earth are able to be a parent a child a spouse etc without being different people God is holy and cannot abide with sin Recognizing that people do sin God's infinite love determined a solution to enable people to fellowship with God while living on earth and forever in heaven God's solution is that Jesus God the Son left the glory of heaven was born as a human child lived a sinless life and offered Himself as a perfect sacrifice to pay the penalty for all mankind's sins for all time That sacrifice involved Jesus's death on a Roman cross burial and His resurrection in three days Jesus was fully human but also fully God as evidenced by His miracles His fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies and His sinless life He demonstrated that love of God and love of others are the most important components of mankind's relationship with God and people God's only stipulation is that we must believe in Jesus and ask Him to become our Lord and Savior Without accepting the gift of Jesus's atoning blood to wash away our sins the alternative is an eternity separated from God This book explores why the Bible can be believed as a source of truth and discusses the evidence of Jesus being the Son of God and the reality of God's love for all people

Masked Men Steve Cohan, 1997-12-22 The fifties marks the moment when a heterosexual homosexual dualism came to dominate U S culture's thinking about masculinity The films of this era record how gender and sexuality did not easily come together in a normative manhood common to American men Instead these films demonstrate the widely held perception of a crisis of masculinity Masked Men documents how movies of the fifties represented masculinity as a multiple masquerade Hollywood's star system positioned the male actor as a professional performer and as a body intended to solicit the erotic interest of male and female viewers alike Drawing on publicity poster art fan magazines and the popular press as a means of following the links between fifties stars their films and the social tensions of the period Cohan juxtaposes Hollywood's narratives of masculinity against the personae of leading men like Cary Grant Humphrey Bogart John Wayne Charlton Heston Yul Brynner William Holden Montgomery Clift Marlon Brando and Rock Hudson Masked Men focuses on the gender and sexual masquerades that organized their performances of masculinity on and off screen
