I Was A Stranger Prof. Arthur Sutherland, 2010-10-01 Arthur Sutherland places before us our fear of meeting the other and the stranger in an increasingly global and frequently dangerous village Various social political and historical factors have conspired to leave us in a veritable crisis the decline of hospitality Why is this a crisis Why should we practice hospitality What is it about Christian theology that compels us to think about hospitality in the first place Sutherland offers a passionate plea to recover and rediscover hospitality and to respond to the divine appeal to welcome the stranger Therein lies the central concern of the book that hospitality is not simply the practice of a virtue but is integral to the very nature of Christianity's position toward God self and the world it is at the very center of what it means to be a Christian and to think theologically He offers a challenging definition of hospitality and calls us to a practice that is the virtue by which the church stands or falls Drawing on modern theologians including Howard Thurman Dietrich Bonhoeffer Karl Barth Martin Luther King Jr and Letty Russell and considering American slavery the Holocaust feminism and prisons Sutherland eloquently presents a Christian theology of hospitality

A Stranger in the Kingdom Howard Frank Mosher, 2014-05-27 This novel of murder and its aftermath in a small Vermont town in the 1950s is reminiscent of To Kill a Mockingbird Absorbing The New York Times In Kingdom County Vermont the town's new Presbyterian minister is a black man an unsettling fact for some of the locals When a French Canadian woman takes refuge in his parsonage and is subsequently murdered suspicion immediately falls on the clergyman While his thirteen year old son struggles in the shadow of the town's accusations and his older son a lawyer fights to defend him a father finds himself on trial more for who he is than for what he might have done Set in northern Vermont in 1952 Mosher's tale of racism and murder is powerful viscerally affecting and totally contemporary in its exposure of deep seated prejudice and intolerance A big old fashioned novel Publishers Weekly A real mystery in the best and truest sense Lee Smith The New York Times Book Review A Winner of the New England Book Award

A Stranger Comes to Town Abra SW,2015-01-05 An aetheric chain reaction sends a wave of death rolling around the world warping living beings and aether based technology alike In one afternoon trains go from being the power that pushed civilization out to the frontier to being very expensive sheds of scrap metal filled with rotting produce and dying cattle Cities go hungry The farmers are in hardly better shape than their former customers in the city Some trees bear withered fruit while gobbets of exploded fruit flesh drape the limbs of others One wheat stalk might be strong and firm but its neighbor disintegrates to dust at a touch Harvesting crops takes more work but yields less food People try not to starve using a variety of tactics The Loyale traveling circus survives the aether storm mostly unscathed When the circus comes to Seppanen Town all seems well until a ragged fugitive plunges into their camp and begs for sanctuary
