differs essentially from all of Dickens other novels in style and manner of treatment Forster in his Life of Dickens writes that there is no instance in his novels excepting this of a deliberate and planned departure from the method of treatment which had been pre eminently the source of his popularity as a novelist To rely less upon character than upon incident and to resolve that his actors should be expressed by the story more than they should express themselves by dialogue was for him a hazardous and can hardly be called an entirely successful experiment With singular dramatic vivacity much constructive art and with descriptive passages of a high order everywhere there was probably never a book by a great humorist and an artist so prolific in conception with so little humor and so few remarkable figures Its merit lies elsewhere The two cities are London and Paris The time is just before and during the French Revolution A peculiar chain of events knits and interweaves the lives of a few simple private people with the outbreak of a terrible public event Dr Manette has been a prisoner in the Bastille for eighteen years languishing there as did so many others on some vague unfounded charge His release when the story opens his restoration to his daughter Lucie the trial and acquittal of one Charles Darnay nephew of a French marquis on a charge of treason the marriage of Lucie Manette to Darnay these incidents form the introduction to the drama of blood which is to follow Two friends of the Manette family complete the circle of important characters Mr

A Tale of Two Cities Charles Dickens, 2018-11-17 In A Tale of Two Cities Charles Darnay tries to escape his heritage as a French aristocrat in the years leading up to the French Revolution During the Revolution he is captured but Sydney Carton a man who looks like Darnay takes his place and dies on the guillotine A Tale of Two Cities summary key points A Tale of Two Cities takes before and during the French Revolution Jarvis Lorry is traveling to Paris to reunite Dr Manette with his long lost daughter Lucie Dr Manette has been living in hiding in Paris awaiting his rescuers who will return him to England Five years later Lucie marries Charles Darnay who confesses to Dr Manette that he is a member of the French ruling class Charles is hoping to bury his past and begin a new life in England When Darnay returns to Paris to save a former servant he is arrested by the revolutionaries and sentenced to death Sydney Carton who resembles Darnay trades places with him in prison and dies on the guillotine in his stead while Darnay returns to London
