A Watermelon A Fish And A Bible English Edition:

A Watermelon, a Fish and a Bible Christy Lefteri, Quercus, 2010-07-01 A moving novel of love and war by the author of The Beekeeper of Aleppo It is July 1974 and on a bright sunny morning the Turkish army has invaded the town of Kyrenia in Cyprus For many people this means an end to life as they know it But for some it is a chance to begin living again Everyone has always talked about Koki They never believed she was her father's daughter and her mother died too soon to quiet their wagging tongues And when she became pregnant and there was no sign of a husband her fate was sealed So she lives outside the town and hides from her neighbours eyes But held captive with the very women who have made her life so lonely Koki is finally able to tell them the truth To talk of the Turkish shoe maker who came to the town and took her heart away with him when he left And how she has longed for him all these years Meanwhile Adem Berker finds himself back in Kyrenia his former home now as a member of the invading force Here he left everything he ever wanted and by cover of darkness risking his life he is searching every house every cafe every old pathway for just a glimpse of the only woman he has ever loved For readers of The Island The Book Thief and The Kite Runner The Book of Fire Christy Lefteri, 2025-01-07 A tender depiction of loss and healing that raises questions about guilt and blame in the age of climate change People As with The Beekeeper of Aleppo Lefteri transports the reader to a once lush and now destroyed world Kristin Hannah 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Nightingale In present day Greece deep in an ancient forest lives a family Irini a musician who teaches children to read and play music her husband Tasso who paints pictures of the forest his greatest muse and Chara their young daughter whose name means joy On the fateful day that will forever alter the trajectory of their lives flames chase fleeing birds across the sky The wildfire that will consume their home and their lives as they know it races toward them Months later as the village tries to rebuild Irini stumbles upon the man who started the fire a land speculator who had intended only a small controlled burn to clear forestland to build on but instead ignited a catastrophe He is dying although the cause is unclear and in her anger at all he took from them Irini makes a split second decision that will haunt her As the local police investigate the suspicious death Tasso mourns his father who has not been seen since before the fire Tasso's hands were burnt in the flames leaving him unable to paint and he struggles to cope with the overwhelming loss of his artistic voice and his beloved forest Only his young daughter who wants to repair the damage that's been done gives him hope for the future Gorgeously written sweeping in scope and intimate in tone The Book of Fire is a masterful work about the search for meaning in the wake of tragedy as well as the universal ties that bind people together and to the land that they call home Greece Between East and West Richard Pine, 2023-03-29 Greece Between East and West looks at the central geopolitical situation of Greece and its pivotal role in the Balkans and the Levant The trend towards modernisation and westernisation is examined in the light of traditional values in culture language history and politics which reflect Greece's eastern legacy and the continuing presence of that legacy in contemporary society It features original creative writing an interview with a leading film maker provocative accounts of political and cultural agitation on the Aegean islands aspects of Greek music and drama plus historical accounts of Greek cities like Smyrna Izmir and Alexandria and the new phenomenon of China's re-creation of the historic Silk Road Additionally Greece Between East and West features a Foreword by Roderick Beaton one of the most distinguished scholars and commentators on Greek history and social affairs and current Chair of the British School at Athens

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels

Colonial and Postcolonial Cyprus Daniele Nunziata, 2020-11-16 This book analyses colonial and postcolonial writing about Cyprus before and after its independence from the British Empire in 1960 These works are understood as transnational literatures in that they navigate the liminal and layered forms of colonialism which impede the freedom of the island including the residues of British imperialism the impact of Greek and Turkish nationalisms and the ethnolinguistic border between north and south This study puts pressure on the postcolonial discipline by evaluating the unique hegemonic relationship Cyprus has with three metropolitan centres not one The print languages associated with each centre English Greek and Turkish are complicit in neo colonial activity Contemporary Cypriot writers address this in order to resist sectarian division and grapple with their deferred postcoloniality

Modern European Borders in Fiction Andrew Hammond, 2025-10-16 Drawing on a significant literary corpus from Europe and the Global South this book examines how post 1945 novelists have debated European borders and the ideologies processes and effects of territorialisation

Cypria Alex Christofi, 2025-09-02 An evocative and lyrical history of Cyprus and the Mediterranean

Songbirds Christy Lefteri, 2022-08-30 A beautifully crafted novel that sits at the intersection of race and class that flags the frank truth of the life of migrant workers for whom a flight to freedom can become the most finely woven trap JODI PICOULT 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Book of Two Ways From the prize winning author of The Beekeeper of Aleppo comes Songbirds a stunning novel about the disappearance of a Sri Lankan domestic worker and how the most vulnerable people find their voices Living on the island of Cyprus Nisha is far from her native Sri Lanka Though she longs to return home she knows that working as a maid for a wealthy widow is the only way to earn enough to support her daughter left behind to be raised by relatives Yiannis is a poacher trapping the tiny protected songbirds that stop in Cyprus as they migrate each year from Africa to Europe and selling them on the illegal market He dreams of finding a new way of life and of marrying Nisha But one night Nisha makes dinner an aromatic dahl curry for the family who pays her Petra and her daughter Aliko Then after she cleans the kitchen and tucks Aliko into bed Nisha goes out on a mysterious errand and vanishes When the police refuse to pursue the case Petra takes on the investigation herself a path that leads her to Nisha s friends other workers in the neighborhood and to the darker side of a migrant s life where impossible choices leave them vulnerable captive and worse Inspired by the real life disappearance of domestic workers in Cyprus Christy Lefteri has crafted a poignant deeply empathetic narrative of the human stories behind the headlines With infinite tenderness and skill Songbirds offers a triumphant story of the fight for truth and justice and of women reclaiming their lost voices Splish-Splash Bible Bash Cook Communications Ministries,2004-08
