A Year With Dig:

The Philosophical Transactions and Collections, to the End of the Year 1700. Abridg'd and Dispos'd Under General Heads ... By John Lowthorp ... The Third Edition (From ... MDCC ... to ... MDCCXX ... by Benj. Motte ... From ... 1719, to ... 1733 ... By Mr. John Eames ... and John Martyn ... From ... 1732, to ... 1744 ... By John Martyn ... From ... 1743, to ... 1750 ... By John Martyn). III (London). Royal Society,1747 Ten years digging in Egypt W. M. Flinders Petrie,2018-11-26 When in the end of 1880 I first started for Egypt I had long been preparing for the expedition during a couple of years before that measuring instruments theodolites rope ladders and all the impedimenta for scientific work had been prepared and tested To start work under circumstances so different from those of any European country and where many customary appliances were not to be obtained required necessarily much prearrangement and consideration though on the whole my subsequent experience has been that of decreasing the baggage and simplifying one s requirements The first consideration on reaching Egypt was where to be housed In those days there was no luxurious hotel close to the pyramids if any one needed to live there they must either live in a tomb or in the Arab village As an English engineer had left a tomb fitted with door and shutters I was glad to get such accommodation When I say a tomb it must be understood to be the upper chamber where the Egyptian fed his ancestors with offerings not the actual sepulchre And I had three rooms which had belonged to separate tombs originally the thin walls of rock which the economical Egyptian left between his cuttings had been broken away and so I had a doorway in the middle into my living room a window on one side for my bedroom and another window opposite for a store room I resided here for a great part of two years and often when in draughty houses or chilly tents I have wished myself back in my tomb No place is so equable in heat and cold as a room cut out in solid rock it seems as good as a fire in cold weather and deliciously cool in the heat Ten Years' Digging in Egypt, 1881-1891 William Matthew Flinders Petrie,1892 Ten Years'digging in Celtic and Saxon Grave Hills, in the Counties of Derby, Stafford, and York Thomas Bateman,1861 The Philosophical Transactions and Collections from the End of the Year 1665 to the End of the Year 1733 ,1721 express the myth of advertising slogans and other popular cultural forms By making use of general theories from the disciplines of anthropology linguistics media studies and semiotics the book attempts to demystify Japanese culture as it has been hitherto presented in the West and shows how such cultural forms as noodle westerns and high school baseball uphold the well known ideologies of selflessness diligence compliance and co operation typically associated with the Japanese Ultimately the book poses the question are those whom we call the Japanese real people in their own right or merely a nation acting out a part written for them by Western civilisation
