On Qian Zhongshu's Conceptualization of Translation Chang, Chung-An, 2025-10-14 This book brings new perspectives and insights to the discipline of translation studies at a time when Western theories dominate its main discourse By highlighting the significant contribution of Chinese scholar Qian Zhongshu which encompasses a theoretical probing of the process and product of translation in both China and the West the author demonstrates how Qian s reconceptualization of the concept of translation expands the discourse to include and integrate concepts from the history of translation in China The concept of huajing which is one of these cultural perspectives developed by Qian transcends the conventional view of translation as a linguistic transfer envisioning it instead as a dynamic realm where encounters with meaning between the textual worlds of China and the West can take place Through a meticulous analysis of Qian s profound though stylistically fragmentary commentaries the author reveals how his comparative vision creates connections by breaking down linguistic and cultural barriers challenging notions of untranslatability that often hinder cross cultural exchange and anticipating an inclusive and globalized understanding of translation so urgently needed today Challenge to Apollo Asif A. Siddiqi,2000 The Call of Albion Mirosława Hanusiewicz-Lavallee,2024-07-22 An in depth look at British Polish literary pre Enlightenment contacts The Call of Albion explores how the reverberations of British religious upheavals in distant Poland Lithuania surprisingly served to strengthen the impact of English Scottish and Welsh works on Polish literature This book argues that Jesuits played a key role in that process It provides an insightful account of how the transmission translation and recontextualization of key publications by British Protestants and Catholics served Calvinist and Jesuit agendas while occasionally bypassing barriers between confessionally defined textual communities and inspiring Polish Lithuanian political thought as well as literary tastes English Journal ,1997
