Guidelines for the Treatment of Alcohol Problems Paul S. Haber, Benjamin C. Riordan, 2021-04-01 The Australian Guidelines for the Treatment of Alcohol Problems have been periodically developed over the past 25 years In 1993 the first version of these guidelines titled An outline for the management of alcohol problems Quality assurance in the treatment of drug dependence project was published Mattick Haber et al 2009 The present version of the Guidelines was also commissioned by the Commonwealth of Australia to remain current and integrated with the updated NHMRC consumption guidelines 2020 In order to ensure that guidelines remain relevant the next set of guidelines should be updated in 2025 consistent with NHMRC recommendation that guidelines be updated every five years These guidelines aim to provide up to date evidence based information to clinicians on available treatments for people with alcohol problems and are largely directed towards individual clinicians in practice such as primary care physicians general practitioners nursing staff specialist medical practitioners psychologists and other counsellors and other health professionals Some chapters highlight service or system level issues that impact on clinicians and their patients These include recommendations concerning Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples culturally and linguistically diverse groups stigma and discrimination Elsewhere organisation capacity is implied such as medical resources for withdrawal management where recommendations indicate use of medications As all forms of treatment will not be readily available or suitable for all populations or settings these guidelines may require interpretation and adaptation

Recovery Anchored in Principles! Rhea May, 2025-08-22 There is no standard way to sponsor an alcoholic The range of methods varies from friendly and chatty to militant and controlling Alcoholics Anonymous World Service or

Alcoholics Anonymous Group Conscience does not authorize any specific guidelines or rules for sponsorship There are no authorities in Alcoholics Anonymous A sponsor can be obtuse and pushy or they can allow themselves to be totally manipulated by the alcoholic This method does not rely on the personalities of either the sponsor or the sponsee it is anchored in principles It is a disciplined and orderly path to freedom for those who have a real desire to stop drinking This guidebook must be used in conjunction with Alcoholics Anonymous Fourth Edition and Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions

Pain and Chemical Dependency Howard Smith, Steven Passik, 2008-04-25 Both pain and addiction are tremendous public health problems Practitioners of every stripe say that they learned precious little about pain or addiction in their training and readily admit that instruction on the interface of pain and addiction is nonexistent The recent problem of prescription drug abuse has only served to highlight the fact that these two worlds need unification those who treat pain must be informed about the risks of controlled substances and those who treat addiction need to better and more fully understand their benefits Nowhere is the pooled knowledge of pain management and addiction medicine brought together to allow for a greater appreciation of the risks of addiction when treating people with pain and the pain problems of those with chemical dependency This major new volume brings this vast knowledge base together presenting an array of perspectives by the foremost thought leaders at the interface of pain and chemical dependency and is the most comprehensive resource on the subject to date There have been an increasing number of seminars devoted to this topic and a new society The International Society on Pain and Chemical Dependency has recently been formed and this volume is destined to become the classic text on this multidisciplinary subject It will appeal to anesthesiologists neurologists rehab physicians palliative care staff pain center physicians and psychologists
