Alarm System Of A Toyota Corolla:

Home Efa E. Etoroma, 2024-02-26 Where are you from Where is your home Do you miss home These are questions that Efa E Etoroma born in Nigeria has frequently been asked since moving to Canada in 1978 In this autoethnography the Concordia University of Edmonton professor examines his views on what home really is and his struggles to feel a true sense of belonging anywhere he has lived Explained with candor and occasional vulnerability Home Reflections on Marginality and Belonging is told from the perspective of a marginalized Black Christian immigrant but his story is relatable to anyone who has felt alienated or had a crisis of identity Efa shares his personal experiences of growing up in post colonial northern Nigeria raised Anglican amongst mostly Muslims and fleeing to the southern region as a child shortly after the start of the Nigerian Civil War Then he recounts moving to Canada to attend school but staying upon meeting his future Canadian born wife He explores his connection with Black Pentecostal churches as well as his thoughts on grieving death and aging away from his homeland Supporting these experiences Efa incorporates an abundance of research for a wider cultural and social context Home Reflections on Marginality and Belonging is part snapshot of the author's life a way of identifying who he is and where he is from part answer to the questions Where are you from and Where is your home and part exploration of the micro level contradictions of social change brought about by modern society Most Wanted: A Jamaican Story I.D.

Seymour, 2018-02-21 The first part of the book introduces the difference in thinking between the uptown and downtown culture in Jamaica The reader experiences how this thinking is translated into a drug deal and how the main characters perceive it As the story unfolds we see how an extradition request is sent for the main player and how this affects not only the government but the characters themselves We also see how persons connected to the main characters are also influenced and impacted by the turn of events The end of the book focuses on the outcome of all the carnage that follows the request and the final effect it has on everyone Devil's Detail (A Dark Mafia Romance | Devil's Playground Romance) Vivi
