A Thousand Rooms Of Dream And Fear:

A Thousand Rooms of Dream and Fear Atiq Rahimi, 2011-08-26 Kabul 1979 A student wakes in an unfamiliar house battered and bruised He gradually recovers his mind to discover that returning from a night out he was brutally attacked by soldiers and left to die Farhad the tragic hero of this nightmarish tale realises that he can now never return home to do so would be to risk the lives of his family As he waits for an answer to his plight he learns the tragic story of the woman who has saved him endangering her own life in the process and begins to feel an impossible and forbidden love for her a love that embodies an angry compassion for the suffering of Afghanistan's women and the yearning for a lost home Three by Atiq

Rahimi Atiq Rahimi, 2013-06-11 Three short novels including Prix Goncourt winning The Patience Stone that convey years of Afghan history heartache and hope Never before in paperback Atiq Rahimi's reputation for writing war stories of immense drama and intimacy began with his first novel Earth and Ashes about fathers and sons and the terrible strain inflicted on families when an Afghan village is destroyed by the Russian army A Thousand Rooms of Dream and Fear takes place in 1979 during a period of social and political upheaval in Kabul On the way home from a night of drinking a university student named Farhad is arrested and brutally beaten A few hours later broken and confused he slowly regains consciousness only to find himself in the care of a beautiful woman who has dragged him into her home to protect him Winner of the Prix Goncourt The Patience Stone is the tale of a woman caring for her brain damaged husband who was shot in the neck during a petty conflict After years of living in a society of Islamic fundamentalism she finds herself strangely liberated by her husband's condition She tells him her innermost thoughts and secrets many of them dark and deeply repressed never knowing whether he's able to hear her or not SAARC Dr. Hiten Ramanbhai Solanki, 2022-11-28 The integrated union of countries vitalizes the political militant socio cultural position of member states The hegemony of western economic and militant power which is generated by controlled knowledge system of west seems to encroach the world With changing scenario the previously overlooked regions and nations are gaining power with increasing socio cultural political and economic advancements

SAARC South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation is a quintessential geopolitical and economic union of South Asian countries which is increasingly gaining the attention of the developed countries It is interesting to study the cultural integration or diversity generating ideology identity and nationalism among South Asian nations with reference to major literary authors from each SAARC member state The book offers an overview of SAARC literature in English discoursing analysis of select literary texts from India Pakistan Nepal and Afghanistan Contemplating Everyday Texts: An Interdisciplinary Review Professor Satnam Kaur, Dr. Shivani Sharma, Mr. Rahul Verma, 2021-05-04 It has a collection of twenty papers by scholarly authors who have discussed various issues and subject matters that explore multiple perspectives from different disciplines sub disciplines and areas of expertise The book provides rich theoretical descriptions and hands on approach that is conceptual and practical and reflects advances in the literature on research learning and assessment

Multiple perceptions produce deeper understanding or illumination viable solution or a product that creatively and innovatively accommodates different perspectives As a maturing academic field interdisciplinary studies needs to define itself to make the case that interdisciplinarity is in fact contributing something distinctive and valuable to the academy and to society The movement is from the most general to the more specific from breadth to depth An Interdisciplinary insight is an expert's view on a particular problem that is based on research This approach is produced when the interdisciplinary research process is used to create an integrated and purposeful result In this book disciplinary experts scholars and students have to produce insights The edited book highlights the valuable ideas views outlook observations and thoughts in the form of chapters by authors from reputed institutions across India It is a complete package consisting of an interdisciplinary review of diverse ideas and considerations highlighted by the authors belonging to different disciplines Modern technological developments and globalization add to the complexity of problems and in response an integrated approach is very much required Each author's focus is on another innovative factor at a different level of analysis using different theoretical frameworks and different methodologies These various aspects discussed and displayed through the interdisciplinary examination in fact stimulate and invigorate the aspiring research scholars academicians researchers to look deeper into some of the issues for further exploration It will be indeed a very good reading the miscellaneous discussion about integrative research papers which is a sort of innovation that is change in the means of knowledge production Here the researchers thoroughly studied the subject and integrate the information to produce new understandings and meanings

The Palace with a Thousand Rooms Yaser Naser, 101-01-01 One night the great sultan in Baghdad has a peculiar dream to which he demands a credible interpretation After many courtiers fail to decipher the dream's meaning a renowned man of science is summoned and he proposes to invent a device that will playback the vision straight out of the sultan's head And when the charming Egyptian queen pays the sultan a visit they arrange for his only daughter and her only son to wed but the young princess refuses to be married off To escape her father's wrath she sneaks out of the palace with the help of a royal guard and the two embark on a sea voyage as many men set off to find and bring her back home all eager to claim the sultan's handsome reward Crossing a desert trade route a camel train is ambushed by a band of seven bandits on horseback A rich spice merchant tries to protect his hard earned gold with his sword but is maimed by one of the bandits Left for dead in the middle of nowhere he encounters a supernatural being Meanwhile four assassins infiltrate the palace in an attempt to murder the sultan in his sleep but they become lost in the labyrinths of courts and corridors Aware of their presence the sultan makes haste to unlock the Forbidden Room the only room in the whole palace where no one beside him is allowed entry Other characters include a belly dancer a lonely fisherman a Greek storyteller and his translator a mysterious outsider a mad sailor a Russian woodcutter a cunning lute player an immortal sage concubines sorcerers djinn swamp ghouls and a vagabond who wanders into a second reality Set in a hybrid fantasy world The Palace with a Thousand Rooms pays homage to the One Thousand and One Nights and the Epic of Gilgamesh and adopts many of the conventions of folk and fairy tales from several cultures such as exotic locales mythical creatures talking animals magical relics eroticism and mystery

Global Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2011-12-21 In countries worldwide the Cold War dominated politics society and culture during the second half of the twentieth century Global Cold War Literatures offers a unique look at the multiple ways in which writers from Asia Africa Europe and North and South America addressed the military conflicts revolutions propaganda wars and ideological debates of the era While including essays on western European and North American literature the volume views First World writing not as central to the period but as part of an international discussion of Cold War realities in which the most interesting contributions often came from marginal or subordinate cultures To this end there is an emphasis on the literatures of the Second and Third Worlds including essays on Latin American poetry Soviet travel writing Chinese autobiography African theatre North Korean literature Cuban and eastern European fiction and Middle Eastern fiction and poetry With the post Cold War era still in a condition of emergence it is essential that we look back to the 1945-89 period to understand the political and cultural forces that shaped the modern world The volume's analysis of those forces and its focus on many of the hot spots Afghanistan Iran North Korea that define the contemporary war on terror make this an essential resource for those working in Postcolonial American and English Literatures as well as in History Comparative Literature European Studies and Cultural Studies Global Cold War Literatures is a suitable companion volume to Hammond's Cold War Literature Writing the Global Conflict also available from Routledge
