Albert Speer The End Of A Myth:

Albert Speer Matthias Schmidt, 1984 House Value Publishing Staff, 1986-09-20 Albert Speer End of a Myth Outlet, Outlet Book Company Staff, Random House Value Publishing Staff, 1986-09-20 Hitler's Engineers Blaine Taylor, 2020-01-10 An intriguing account of two of Nazi Germany's top architects and how their work prolonged the war for months includes hundreds of photos WWII History A Selection of the Military Book Club While Nazi Germany's temporary ascendancy owed much to military skill the talent of its engineers not only buoyed the regime but allowed it to survive longer than would normally be expected This unique work focusing on Fritz Todt and Albert Speer is based on many previously unpublished photographs and artwork from captured Nazi records Todt was the brilliant builder of the world's first superhighway system the Autobahn and the architect of the German West Wall the Siegfried Line that predated the later Atlantic and East Walls The builder of each of the wartime Führer Headquarters as well as the submarine pens Todt was killed in a still mysterious airplane crash that may well have been a Nazi death plot though he was given a state funeral by Hitler Todt was succeeded as German Minister of Armaments and War Production by the Führer's longtime personal architect Albert Speer who was described by the Allies after the war as having prolonged the conflict by at least a year Called a genius by Hitler Speer designed and built the prewar Nuremberg Nazi Party Congress rally stands and buildings More importantly amid the constant rain of Allied bombs and the Soviet advances from the East Speer managed to keep the German industrial machine running until the spring of 1945 though it was driven ever further underground He also allocated resources to fortifications and counterattacks like the V missile installations against both West and East in attempts to stave off defeat Convicted as a war criminal at Nuremberg Speer served twenty years at Spandau Prison and remained a Nazi apologist who died in London in 1981 on the anniversary of the German invasion of Poland Together Todt and Speer were the pillars that propped up the Third Reich through the vicissitudes of battlefield fortune With over three hundred photographs this is the first work that examines their role in history's most terrible war Albert Speer—Escaping the Gallows Adrian Greaves, 2021-08-30 At the Nuremberg War Crimes Tribunal Albert Speer Hitler's one time number two persuaded the judges that he knew nothing of the Holocaust and related atrocities Narrowly escaping execution he was sentenced to twenty years in Spandau Prison Berlin In 1961 the newly commissioned author as the British Army Spandau Guard Commander was befriended by Speer who taught him German Adrian Greaves record of his conversations with Speer over a three year period make for fascinating reading While the top Nazi admitted to Greaves his secret part in war crimes after his 1966 release he determinedly denied any wrongdoing and became an intriguing and popular figure at home and abroad Following Speer's death in 1981 evidence emerged of his complicity in Hitler's and the Nazi's atrocities In this uniquely revealing book the author skilfully blends his own personal experiences and relationship with Speer with a succinct history of the Nazi movement and the horrors of the 1930s and 1940s In so doing new light is thrown on the character of one of the 20th century's most notorious characters German

Life Writing in the Twentieth Century Birgit Dahlke, Dennis Tate, Roger Woods, 2010 Life writing an increasingly accepted category among scholars of literature and other disciplines encompasses not just autobiography and biography but also memoirs diaries letters interviews and even non written texts such as film Whether these were produced in diary or letter form as events unfolded or long after the event in the form of autobiographical prose common to all are attempts by individuals to make sense of their experiences In many such texts the authors reassess their lives against the background of a broader public debate about the past This book of essays examines German life writing after major turning points in twentieth century German history the First World War the Nazi era the postwar division of Germany and the collapse of socialism and German unification The volume is distinctive because it combines an overview of academic approaches to the study of life writing with a set of German language case studies In this respect it goes further than existing studies which often present life writing material without indicating how it might fit into our broader understanding of a particular culture or historical period

The Political Theatre of David Edgar Janelle Reinelt, Gerald Hewitt, 2011-07-14 David Edgar's writings address the most basic questions of how humans organize and govern themselves in modern societies This study brings together the disciplines of political philosophy and theatre studies to approach the leading British playwright as a political writer and a public social critic Edgar uses theatre as a powerful tool of public discourse an aesthetic modality for engaging with and thinking feeling through the most pressing social issues of the day In this he is a supreme rationalist he deploys character plot and language to explore ideas to make certain kinds of discursive cases and model hypothetical alternatives Reinelt and Hewitt analyze twelve of Edgar's most important plays including Maydays and Pentecost and also provide detailed discussions of key performances and critical reception to illustrate the playwright's artistic achievement in relation to his contributions as a public figure in British cultural life

The Holocaust and the Revival of Psychological History Judith M. Hughes, 2015 Why did men and women in one of the best educated countries in the Western world set out to get rid of Jews In this book Judith M Hughes focuses on how historians efforts to grapple anew with matters of actors meanings intentions and purposes have prompted a return to psychoanalytically informed ways of thinking Hughes makes her case with fine grained analyses of books by Hugh Trevor Roper Ian Kershaw Daniel Goldhagen Saul Friedlander Christopher Browning Jan Gross Hannah Arendt and Gitta Sereny All of the authors pose psychological questions the more astute among them shed fresh light on the Holocaust without making the past any less disturbing
