Drug and Alcohol Abuse in the Armed Services United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Armed Services. Subcommittee on Manpower and Personnel, 1982 Alcohol Education Materials Gail Gleason Milgram, 1975 Violence on Campus Allan Michael Hoffman, John H. Schuh, Robert H. Fenske, 1998 This unique book addresses violence on campus and its impact on America's colleges and universities from a practical management perspective Each chapter builds on a theoretical base to provide guidance strategies and a multidisciplinary approach to successfully dealing with this growing issue Nearly 400 pages Violence on Campus is a unique blend of in depth research and actual case studies of programs that have been employed to reduce on campus violent crime If you re like most people you re being asked to handle more than ever before But chances are you re being asked to do it with the same or even fewer resources Violence on Campus Defining the Problems Strategies for Action is a vital tool to help you do your job better Religion, Education and Academic Success William Jeynes,2003-08-01 The goal of this book is to examine the relationship between religion and academic success both historically and in modern society Very few books are dedicated to examining this very important topic In addition to this date there has never been a published quantitative meta analysis examining the effects of religiosity and religious schools on academic outcomes It is my hope that this book will be a useful tool for educators researchers professors and parents who desire to examine this relevant and practical area of study Our nation owes much of its educational foundation to the religious orientation of many of its founders educational pioneers and educational reformers Although educational historians used to focus on the religious and moral orientation of people like Noah Webster Horace Mann Johann Pestalozzi Emma Willard Friedrich Froebel and many others contemporary educational historians inappropriately omit the religious roots of these individuals Coping with Alcohol and Drug Problems Jim Orford,Guillermina Natera,Alex Copello,Carol Atkinson,Jazmin Mora,Richard Velleman,Ian Crundall,Marcela Tiburcio,Lorna Templeton,Gwen Walley,2013-01-11 What difference does culture make Coping with Alcohol and Drug Problems The Experiences of Family Members in Three Contrasting Cultures aims to deepen and extend understanding of the experiences of family members trying to cope with the excessive drinking or drug taking of a relative Comprehensive and thoroughly up to date this book draws on the results of the cross cultural study of alcohol and drug problems in the family and places these results within the broader context of the international literature on the subject By investigating the similarities and differences in the experiences of family members in three parts of the world the authors reveal results which have far reaching implications for professional intervention and prevention Subjects covered include models of understanding how families continue to be pathologised and misunderstood how family members cope an integrated view of alcohol and drug problems in the family ways of empowering family members This book aims to demonstrate the possibility of a constructive alliance between professionals substance misusing relatives and the affected family members by thoroughly investigating the dilemmas that face family members and the lack of support they experience This fascinating insight into the impact of alcohol and drug problems on family members will be a valuable resource for all those who are interested in substance misuse in family and cultural contexts and particularly those who are interested in the treatment of alcohol and other drug problems Alcohol Health and Research World ,1984
