

The aim of this unit is to answer the following question:

Was Alexander the Great a heroic commander and leader deserving of praise, or was he a villainous warmonger deserving of criticism?

You will write a document-based question (DBQ) to answer this prompt. A DBQ involves reading, analyzing, and answering questions about various sources and then using these sources to reaffirm your claim to the question above. After reading each document, answer the questions associated with it and then put a + or - or both symbols in the document box if the source depicts Alexander in a positive or negative light.

After all documents have been examined and analyzed, complete the DBQ organizational chart to help you plan out your paper.

Background: When Alexander was a young boy, a horse trader came to Macedonia to sell his father a strong war horse. The following is the story of how Alexander tamed the horse that he would ride in battle for 35 years until it died in India.

At first, then, Philip held his peace; but as Alexander many times let fall such words and showed great distress, he said: "Dost thou find fault with thine elders in the belief that thou knowest more than they do or art better able to manage a horse?" "This horse, at any rate," said Alexander, "I could manage better than others have." "And if thou shouldst not, what penalty wilt thou undergo for thy rashness?" "Indeed," said Alexander, "I will forfeit the price of the horse." There was laughter at this, and then an agreement between father and son as to the forfeiture, and at once Alexander ran to the horse, took hold of his bridle-rein, and turned him towards the sun; for he had noticed, as it would seem, that the horse
