TARGET AUDIENCE

Marketing MBA Specialisation
Marketing Arts Management

Carla Walter, 2015-05-22

Arts Management is designed as an upper division undergraduate and graduate level text that covers the principles of arts management. It is the most comprehensive up to date and technologically advanced textbook on arts management on the market. While the book does include the background necessary for understanding the global arts marketplace, it assumes that cultural fine arts come to fruition through entrepreneurial processes and that cultural fine arts organizations have to be entrepreneurial to thrive. Many cases and examples of successful arts organizations from the United States and abroad appear in every chapter. A singular strength of Arts Management is the author's skilful use of in text tools to facilitate reader interest and engagement. These include learning objectives, chapter summaries, discussion questions and exercises, case studies and numerous examples and cultural spotlights. Online instructor's materials with PowerPoints are available to adopters.

Marketing W/PowerWeb

Michael J. Etzel, Bruce J. Walker, William J. Stanton, 2001

Etzel Walker Stanton's Marketing 12th Edition will continue to be a low cost alternative in a paperback format now including free access to PowerWeb. It incorporates technology throughout in text and boxed examples, chapter opening cases and part ending cases. This book was the first to incorporate WWW addresses and in this edition the authors go well beyond that with an in depth look at how companies are making technology an important part of their successful marketing strategies. The authors have also made it a priority to integrate other important and current themes such as global marketing, customer relationships, small business and entrepreneurship. In this edition the global marketing chapter was moved to the first part of the book, chapter 3, to introduce its importance early. Global examples and coverage are then integrated throughout. This edition offers a completely new design, a revised supplements package, a new interactive web page and a special package with Annual Edition online.
