Reinhardt, 2008-11-20 Opinion leaders in science and politics examine findings and legislation in alternatives to animal testing Refine reduce replace These are the three demands that scientists have placed upon themselves in their search for alternatives to animal testing Indeed much interdisciplinary research is being carried on today and new fields have emerged such as in vitro toxicology The three R s call for new scientific insights Moreover validation and acceptance strategies have to be adapted a process of much ongoing interest and vital concern to the pharmaceutical and cosmetic industries Researchers need to know exactly what has been achieved and accepted in alternatives to animal testing in science and politics In this book they have the opportunity to benefit from the knowledge and expertise of leading researchers and influential representatives of national and international regulatory authorities The Animal Experimentation Debate David E. Newton, 2013-05-09 Reviewing the topic from antiquity to the present day this book examines the debate over the use of animals in research in a fair and balanced way The debate over the use of nonhuman animals in experimental research has gone on for centuries and it continues as vigorously today as it ever has In fact in the last decade the controversy has intensified making animal testing a topic at the highest level of debate of any socioscientific issue in the United States This book presents all sides of the issue so that readers can come to their own conclusions as to the morality and validity of animal experimentation and provides biographies of individuals and descriptions of organizations that have been involved in the debate over the centuries Additionally it documents the historical shift in thinking that made animal experimentation commonplace between the time of the ancient Greeks and the 19th century to the mindset of some who argue for an end to the practice and alternative ways of conducting medical experimentation to benefit human health Alternatives to Laboratory Animals ,2008 New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1896 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Select Committee on Small Business United States.
