Wheeler, 2004 For courses in the Guidance and Management of Young Children This text examines the nature of conflict among 2 to 8 year olds from a research based constructivist ecological perspective integrating themes of caring building classroom community connecting curriculum involving family and community and responding to the current educational climate The author thoroughly discusses children's conflicts emphasizing that peer and community culture make up the foundation for preventing and resolving conflict and advocates teaching conflict resolution skills via a three layer cake of understanding management and resolution Coverage presents ways to create a caring classroom both in physical environment and curriculum to work with other adults in a child's life and to implement peer mediation Throughout the material stresses the need to understand all children in light of applicable theory and current best practice in culturally responsive and inclusive classrooms Preschool Peer Social Intervention in Autism Spectrum Disorder Nirit Bauminger-Zviely, Dganit Eytan, Sagit Hoshmand, Ofira Rajwan Ben-Shlomo, 2021-09-22 This book presents the Preschool Peer Social Intervention PPSI a manualized comprehensive social curriculum to enhance peer interaction for pre schoolers with Autism Spectrum Disorders ASD in three key domains play interaction and conversation The book outlines the PPSI's transactional approach in each of the three intervention domains and incorporates developmental features and age appropriate play interaction and conversation skills while accounting for individual differences in social communication abilities The intervention is designed to be implemented within the child's natural social environment such as preschool and it includes the child's social agents namely their peers teachers and parents PPSI intervention curricula addressed in this book are based on typical play interaction and conversation development taking into account the social and communication challenges found to characterize young children with ASD in these domains Building up the ability to play interact and converse more efficiently with peers may render a substantial impact on preschoolers with ASD with vast potential for improving not only these children s immediate social experience with peers but also their future social competence that relies on these early building blocks

The Classrooms All Young Children Need Patricia M. Cooper,2009-10-15 Teacher and author Vivian Paley is highly regarded by parents educators and other professionals for her original insights into such seemingly everyday issues as play story gender and how young children think In The Classrooms All Young Children Need Patricia M Cooper takes a synoptic view of Paley s many books and articles charting the evolution of Paley s thinking while revealing the seminal characteristics of her teaching philosophy This careful analysis leads Cooper to identify a pedagogical model organized around two complementary principles a curriculum that promotes play and imagination and the idea of classrooms as fair places where young children of every color ability and disposition are welcome With timely attention paid to debates about the reduction in time for play in the early childhood classroom the role of race in education and No Child Left Behind The Classrooms All Young Children Need will be embraced by anyone tasked with teaching our youngest pupils Views and Beliefs in Mathematics Education Carola Bernack-Schüler,Ralf Erens,Timo Leuders,Andreas Eichler,2015-05-05 International mathematics education researchers give a differentiated overview of views and beliefs of both teachers and students Beliefs about how to teach mathematics have a high impact on the instructional practice of teachers In the same way views and beliefs about mathematics are an essential factor to explain achievement and performance of students The 19th MAVI conference added a variety of research perspectives to the international discussions of mathematics related beliefs The authors of this volume have compiled a rich selection of research results which may further enhance the discussion of MAVI topics in the future Developing Literacy in Preschool Lesley Mandel Morrow,2007-06-02

Preschoolers are passionate about learning and a high quality preschool program offers rich learning experiences in the areas of language and literacy This engaging book gives teachers and other professionals fresh ideas inspiration and practical tools for integrating age appropriate literacy instruction into the preschool curriculum Including helpful vignettes sample lesson plans and reproducibles the book shows how to create a motivating classroom environment balance child initiated exploration with structured activities and support students developing skills in reading writing speaking and comprehension Essential topics include preschool assessment and working with English language learners Literacy, Technology, and Diversity Jim Cummins,Kristin Brown,Dennis Sayers,2007 An invaluable resource for both practicing and pre service teachers this long awaited book offers a fresh and much needed point of view of how to rethink literacy and technology in today s diverse classrooms Authored by some of the most respected researchers in the field today Literacy Technology and Diversity reflects on the idea that great expectations are achievable through educational projects that foster academic growth with classroom diversity and technology as catalysts for deeper learning and that a narrow focus on grade expectations yields superficial results. Arguing today's learning principles need to incorporate the core values of community learning, critical pedagogy, multilingualism, anti-racist education, high academic standards, and technological fluency, Cummins, Sayers, and Brown provide a thought-provoking introduction into these learning principles that will inspire the life-long learning of students. Take a peek inside! Provides examples of projects backed by research-based theories for their effective adaptation to help both pre-service and practicing teachers become more independent and creative in the ways they use technology. Gives useful suggestions on how to effectively integrate literacy and technology into the classroom. Presents Portraits: Case studies of collaborative projects promoting literacy learning and often involving technology on such topics as Cognition Assessment Community of Learning and Tools and Resources in Section II. Chapters 5-9. Contains an appendix of short vignettes of exemplary projects that promote learning of standards-based expectations for academic achievement. Includes a complimentary CD-ROM of additional resources for teachers as well as updated portraits on exemplary projects.
