United States Congress

Human Rights in Azerbaijan Since the COP 29 UN Climate Change Conference

Date: Tue, 04/29/2025 - 10:30 AM

Location: 2360 Rayburn House Office Building

The hearing will examine the Government of Azerbaijan's human rights violations against those who oppose the government and its policies, include those abroad through transnational repression, and the relation between corruption and human rights abuses. It will also examine rights abuses against ethnic Armenians, including political prisoners and POWs. Since the government of Azerbaijan conducted a military operation to gain full control over Nagorno-Karabakh in September 2023, virtually all ethnic Armenians left Azerbaijan due to the government's record of anti-Armenian incitement and atrocities. Witnesses will offer recommendations for Congress.
