DBQ The Era of Andrew Jackson

This homework is based on the accompanying documents. It is designed to test your ability to work with historical documents. Some of these documents have been edited for the purposes of the question. As you analyze the documents, take into account the source of each document and any point of view that may be presented in the document.

Was Andrew Jackson a “hero of the common man” or was he no better than King George III?

Directions:

Part I Answer the questions to the following documents.

Document 1 - Jackson's inauguration

(Washington, DC) March 11th (1829)

Thousands and thousands of people, without distinction or rank, collected in an immense mass round the Capital, silent, orderly, and tranquil, with their eyes fixed on the front of that edifice (large or impressive building), waiting the appearance of the President...The door open,... the old man with his grey locks (hair), that crown of glory advances, bows to the people, who greet him with a shout that rends (splits) the air...It was grand, it was sublime! An almost breathless silence... and the multitude (crowd) was still, listening to catch the sound of his voice, tho' (though) it was so low, as to be heard only by those nearest to him. After...(he read) his speech, the oath was administered to him by the Chief Justice."

Margaret Bayard, Smith, inauguration observer

1. Describe who was allowed to attend Jackson's inauguration? (1) _
2. What was the crowd's reaction to Jackson's appearance? (1)

Document 2 - Jackson's message explaining his veto of the National Bank, July 10, 1832

"It is to be regretted that the rich and powerful too often bend the acts of government to their selfish purposes....Distinctions in society will always exist under every just government....But when the laws undertake to.... Make the rich richer and the potent more powerful, the humble members of society....have a right to complain of the injustice of their Government."

Van Buren won triumphant reelection over Henry Clay But only days later South Carolina nullified the federal tariff law and began preparing for armed resistance Jackson answered with an official proclamation that disunion by armed force is treason The year closed with Jackson immersed in plans to suppress nullification and destroy the Bank of the United States Embracing all these stories and many more this volume offers an incomparable window into Andrew Jackson his presidency and America itself in 1832
