Young People and the European City David M. Pomfret, 2004 As European society became more urbanised in the nineteenth century and new approaches to city life were developed educated observers began to articulate fears about the impact cities had on the young This book offers a new approach to this impact and the wider history of young people in European cities Comparing a broad age range in two different urban contexts Nottingham and Saint Etienne it not only provides a close reading of local events to substantiate or critique generalisations commonly made about the urban young but also uses this material to generate wider insights into the relationship between cities and the rising generation in their national and European contexts

Learnership Cathy A. Toll, 2012-05-18 Put the focus of education back where it belongs on learning Do you feel bogged down by endless administrative tasks Do you wish you could focus more on what truly matters learning Learnership provides both insight and solutions for moving past the distractions and becoming a learning leader Cathy Toll illustrates this transformational process through activities and focused learning conversations Toll uses supported actions theory and research real life stories and narrative bibliography to explain how the practice of learnership can be implemented on a daily basis This book offers Practices to help teachers improve their effectiveness using problem solving techniques More effective ways to approach data testing and accountability Strategies for supporting Professional Learning Teams PLT and educational coaches Learnership is an invaluable resource for principals and teachers in school based leadership roles or anyone who wishes to focus on school improvement and their own personal growth as a leader in education

FET Colleges South Africa. Department of Education, 2007

An Overview of South African Human Resources Development Andre Kraak, 2004 This book provides an overview of human resources development HRD in South Africa It focuses on three institutional subsystems within the larger South African social system that play an important role in developing human resources namely the youth labour market the world of work with its associated enterprise training system the national system of science and innovation The analysis shows how in the current South African context contradiction and incoherence characterise the interaction between institutions in each of these three subsystems The book also argues that the skills problem is not located only at the high skills end but also in intermediate and low skill needs Each of these skill bands are experiencing severe HRD problems which require urgent resolution The author argues that solutions to these problems lie in cross sectoral governmental policy coordination and implementation and that in the absence of such joined up action HRD problems will continue to fall between the discrete mandates of separate government departments
