14 November Economis Pmemo:

Documents on German Foreign Policy, 1918-1945, from the Archives of the German Foreign Ministry Germany.

Auswärtiges Amt,1953 Between Containment and Rollback Christian F. Ostermann,2021-04-27 In the aftermath of World War II American policymakers turned to the task of rebuilding Europe while keeping communism at bay In Germany formally divided since 1949 the United States prioritized the political economic and eventually military integration of the fledgling Federal Republic with the West The extraordinary success story of forging this alliance has dominated our historical understanding of the American German relationship Largely left out of the grand narrative of American German relations were most East Germans who found themselves caught under Soviet and then communist control by the post 1945 geopolitical fallout of the war that Nazi Germany had launched They were the ones who most dearly paid the price for the country's division This book writes the East Germans both leadership and general populace back into that history as objects of American policy and as historical agents in their own right Based on recently declassified documents from American Russian and German archives this book demonstrates that U S efforts from 1945 to 1953 went beyond building a prosperous democracy in western Germany and containing Soviet Communist power to the east Under the Truman and then the Eisenhower administrations American policy also included efforts to undermine and roll back Soviet and German communist control in the eastern part of the country This story sheds light on a darker side to the American Cold War in Germany propaganda covert operations economic pressure and psychological warfare Christian F Ostermann takes an international history approach capturing Soviet and East German responses and actions and drawing a rich and complex picture of the early East West confrontation in the heart of Europe The Army and Economic Mobilization Ralph Elberton Smith,1991 economic embrace of imperialism in the years before 1899 the impact of imperialism on the economic development of colonial Sudan to 1956 and then the post colonial economic legacy of imperialism into the 1970s This text highlights how state centred economic activity was developed in cooperation with British international business Founded on an economic model that was debt driven capital intensive and cash crop oriented the colonial economy of Sudan was centred on cotton growing This model locked Sudan into a particular developmental path that in turn contributed to the nature and timing of decolonization and the consequent structures of dependency in the post colonial era

until 2004 Though divided by race class gender and party Catholics have influenced issues of war and peace social justice and life and death among modern presidents in a profound way starting with the election of President Kennedy and expanding their influence through the intervening years with subsequent presidents McAndrews shows that American Catholics led by their bishops and in some cases their pope have been remarkably successful in shaping the political dialogue and at helping to effect policy outcomes inside and outside of Washington Indeed although they opened this era by helping to elect one of their own Catholic voters have gained so much influence and have become so secure in their socioeconomic status and so confident in their political standing that they closed the era by rejecting one of their own voting for George W Bush over John Kerry in 2004
