National Preparedness Goal ANS "A secure and resilient nation with the capabilities required across the whole community to prevent, protect against, mitigate, respond to, and recover from the threats and hazards that pose the greatest risk."

Mission Areas and Capabilities ANS This goal sets the vision for preparedness nationwide and identifies the core capabilities necessary to achieve that vision across five mission areas: Prevention, Protection, Mitigation, Response, and Recovery.

Prevention ANS The term "prevention" refers to those capabilities necessary to avoid, prevent, or stop a threatened or actual act of terrorism. Prevention capabilities include but are not limited to: information sharing and warning; domestic counterterrorism; and preventing the acquisition or use of weapons of mass destruction (WMD).

Protection ANS The term "protection" refers to those capabilities necessary to secure the homeland against terrorism and manmade or natural disasters. Protection capabilities include but are not limited to: defense against weapons of mass destruction (WMD) threats; defense of agriculture and food; critical infrastructure protection; protection of key leadership and events; border security; maritime security; transportation security; immigration security; and cybersecurity.

Mitigation ANS The term "mitigation" refers to those capabilities necessary to reduce loss of life and property by lessening the impact of
