deliberates on the intertwined fates of Confucius and the Five Classics over the course of the twentieth century and shows how the contents of the Five Classics are relevant to much newer concerns The Athenaeum, 1843 The Publishers Weekly, 1968 Reed and Bush Warblers Peter Kennerley, David Pearson, 2010-09-15 Bradypterus Locustella Hippolais Cettia The Century Cyclopedia of Names Benjamin Eli Smith, 1894 Material Culture from Prehistoric Virginia William Hranicky, 2009-04 Material Culture from Prehistoric Virginia Volume 2 is one volume of a two volume set This two volume set is available in black and white and in color Volume 1 contains artifact listings from A through L Volume 2 contains the remainder of the alphabetical listings These publications contain over 10 000 prehistoric artifacts mainly from Virginia but the publication covers the eastern U S The set starts with Pre Clovis and goes through Woodland times with some Indian ethnography and rockart Each volume is indexed contains references has charts and graphs drawings photographs artifact dates and artifact descriptions These volumes contain artifacts that have never appeared in the archaeological literature From beginners to experienced archaeologists they offer a complete library for the American Indian culture and experience If the prehistoric Indian made it an example is probably shown Beyond the Green Myth Peter G. Sercombe, Bernard Sellato, 2008-03-18 Borneo with its tales of White Rajahs and tribes of headhunters has long excited the Western imagination Today however there is another green imagination at work Mention of the island is more likely to evoke images of tropical deforestation and concern about the cruel dispossession and displacement of indigenous peoples who once lived in relative harmony with their environment It is perhaps not suprising then that most books dealing with the nomadic hunter gatherers of Borneo have principally been pictorial studies There is indeed a dearth of scholarship regarding these peoples a situation that this first ever comprehensive review of nomadic groups in the Borneo rain forest aims to rectify Presenting a wealth of new research contributed by an international team of scholars the volume covers all of those parts of Borneo where nomads called Penan Punan or by various other names are or were known to exist and provides a comparative historical ecological study of these groups The study is primarily concerned with issues of modernization including the monetary economy formalized institutions centralized power structures contractual relationships and extraction activities and development policies The impact of these policies is analyzed with special regard to the natural environment inhabited by these small scale societies as well as the use of its resources The book has no stiff theoretical orientation but informs ongoing debates about changing forms of ethnicity relations between minorities and the state minorities rights and survival native discourse the sustainability of tropical forest use and the neo romantic environmentalist myth of so called wise traditional peoples

Roger C. Sullivan and the Making of the Chicago Democratic Machine, 1881-1908 Richard Allen Morton, 2016-07-12 Dominating the Windy City for decades the Chicago Democratic Machine has become a fixture in American political history Under Mayor Richard J Daley it acquired almost mythical perhaps notorious status Yet its origins have remained murky some say is began as a shady enterprise during the ethnic upheaval of the late 1920s Based upon new research this book offers a fresh perspective Formed through factional warfare and consolidated with methods borrowed from the business world the Machine grew out of the unfettered capitalism of the late 19th century Its principal founder and first boss Roger C Sullivan represented a generation of businessmen politicians who emerged in the 1880s Sullivan and his allies created an informal public power structure that while serving their own interests also made government more functional The Machine is a product of America s Gilded Age and the Progressive Era and offers a lesson in the advantages and limitations of representative government

Our Blue Planet Ben Ford, Jessi J. Halligan, Alexis Catsambis, 2020 Our Blue Planet provides a comprehensive introduction to the field of maritime and underwater archaeology Situating the field within the broader study of history and archaeology this book advocates that an understanding of how our ancestors interacted with rivers lakes and oceans is integral to comprehending the human past Our Blue Planet covers the full breadth of maritime and underwater archaeology including formerly terrestrial sites drowned by rising sea levels coastal sites and a wide variety of wreck sites ranging across the globe and spanning from antiquity to World War II Beginning with a definition of the field and several chapters dedicated to the methods of finding recording and interpreting submerged sites Our Blue Planet provides an entry point for all readers whether or not they are familiar with maritime and underwater archaeology or archaeology in general The book then shifts to a thematic approach with chapters exploring human interactions with the watery world both along the coasts and by ship These chapters discuss the relationships between culture technology and environment that allowed humans through time to spread across the globe Because ships were the primary means for humans to interact with large bodies of water they are the focus of several chapters on the development of shipbuilding technology the lives of sailors and the uses of ships in exploration expansion and warfare The book ends with chapters on how and why the non renewable submerged archaeological record should be managed so that both current and future generations can learn from the achievements and failures of past societies as well as on how anyone can become involved in maritime and underwater archaeology Throughout the reader benefits from the personal reflections of a number of leading figures in the field
