Decent Work Annamaria Di Fabio, David L. Blustein, 2016-09-21 This Research Topic explores issues that are central to the continued relevance of organizational and vocational psychology and equally central to the well being of individuals and communities The cohering theme of this publication revolves around the question of how people can establish meaningful lives and meaningful work experiences in light of the many challenges that are reducing access to decent work Another essential contextual factor that is explored in this volume is the Decent Work Agenda International Labour Organization 2008 which represents an initiative by the International Labour Organization In this book we hope to enrich the Decent Work Agenda by infusing the knowledge and perspectives of psychology into contemporary discourses about work and well being Another inspiration for this project emerged from the UNESCO Chair in Lifelong guidance and counseling recently established in Poland in 2013 under the leadership of Jean Guichard which has focused on advancing research and policy advocacy about decent work This new era calls for an innovative perspective in constructing decent work and decent lives the passage from the paradigm of motivation to the paradigm of meaning where the sustainability of the decent life project is anchored to a meaningful construction During this period when work is changing so rapidly leaving people yearning for a sense of connection and meaning it s fundamental to create a framework for an explicitly psychological analysis of decent work

Sustainable and Mission-oriented Innovation in Economic Systems and Governance for Equitable Global Health and Wellbeing Sam Agatre Okuonzi,Humphrey Cyprian Karamagi,Jolem Mwanje,2025-10-08 Sustainable economic production and equitable distribution are aimed at a reducing inequality b ending human deprivation c maximizing human fulfillment d maintaining innovation and e not exceeding the earth s carrying capacity Mission oriented research addresses grand challenges facing the world that affect the well being of people These challenges include health insecurity climate change population changes unemployment mass migration environmental degradation and terrorism The goal of this Research Topic is to urge governments and international governance organizations to innovate systems and guide new technologies to respond to the grand challenges Health and socio economic crises around the world are prevalent and can be attributed to the global neo liberal capitalist policies Three decades of free market health sector reforms in poor countries did not achieve appreciable improvement in health care Instead they have fragmented commodified and privatized health care and condoned inequity in health and health care This has been especially so in underdeveloped countries where foreign aid grants are often tied to free market conditions The global pandemic Coronavirus Disease 2019 COVID 19 has revealed this inequality and how unsuitable and unprepared global economic and governance systems are for health security and the overall well being of people The wider socio economic crises engulfing the world today include unemployment mass migration environmental degradation and terrorism
