2014 Memorandum Geography December:

Children of Migrants in China Kam Wing Chan, Yuan Ren, 2020-11-25 Children are precious in China especially as its population ages rapidly The unprecedented fast urbanization and massive internal migration have profoundly changed almost every aspect of society They have impacted the livelihood of children of migrants most Because of the hukou system and related policies China's internal migrants face major obstacles to assimilate into cities But more than that as this book shows these policies have also torn families apart on a scale unseen heretofore More than 100 million children grow up in unstable families and the great majority have suffered from prolonged separation from their parents in the migratory upheaval This book provides an updated analysis of this mega and painful process unfolding at various geographical scales The chapters revolve around the central notion of family togetherness or the lack thereof The book measures dissects and analyses the impacts of migration on children and recommends policies to address major problems from a variety of disciplinary perspectives employing different methodologies The problems faced by the children of migrants remain enormous and it is a looming huge crisis in the making If unaddressed those problems can damage a whole generation with serious consequences The chapters in this book were first published in Eurasian Geography and Economics

Peer-to-peer Accommodation and Community Resilience Anna Farmaki, Dimitri Ioannides, Stella Kladou, 2022-03-16 The growth of peer to peer P2P accommodation has been remarkable However the rapid expansion of the phenomenon has yielded several concerns over its potentially negative economic social and environmental impacts These impacts are highlighted in policy agendas as an emerging problem encountered by many local communities in destinations experiencing a boom in P2P accommodation Specifically concerns have been raised over the impact of the growth of P2P accommodation on local housing markets residents well being and the environment as a result of the touristification of residential areas In fact many observers accuse P2P accommodation of fuelling the overtourism problem that several destinations face This edited book addresses the need to examine the P2P accommodation phenomenon from a community resilience lens In particular through a collection of chapters presenting a range of empirical and conceptual perspectives from urban and rural communities the book considers the implications of P2P accommodation growth on the resilience of local communities and the sustainable development of places

Kyrgyzstan - Regime Security and Foreign Policy Kemel Toktomushev, 2016-10-04 Kyrgyzstan is an interesting example of a relatively weak state which for its brief period of independence has already ousted two presidents experienced two revolutions survived two interethnic conflicts and yet remained intact This book explores this apparent paradox and argues that the schism between domestic and international dimensions of state and regime security is key to understanding the nature of Kyrgyz politics The book shows how the foreign policy links to the Manas Air Base used by the US military and essential for supplying their forces in Afghanistan the economic arrangements necessary for sustaining the base both inside and outside Kyrgyzstan and the myriad of different actors involved in all this combined to overshadow points of friction to ensure stable continuance of the status quo Overall the book shows how broad geopolitical forces and complex local factors together have a huge impact on the formation of Kyrgyz foreign policy Debt and Austerity Jodi Gardner, Mia Gray, Katharina Moser, 2020-11-27 This book explores the complex interactions between debt and austerity analysing the social economic and legal implications of governments responses to the 2008 financial crisis Towards a Cultural Politics of Climate Change Harriet Bulkeley, Matthew Paterson, Johannes Stripple, 2016-09-15 Towards a Cultural Politics of Climate Change provides a new perspective on how climate change matters in policy making business and everyday life It argues that the work of low carbon transitions takes place through the creation of devices the mobilisation of desires and the articulation of dissent Using case studies from the US Australia and Europe the book examines the creation and contestation of new forms of cultural politics of how a climate changed society is articulated realized and contested Through this approach it opens up questions about how where and by whom climate politics is conducted and the ways in which we might respond differently to this societal challenge This book provides a key reference point for the emerging academic community working on the cultural politics of climate change and a means through which to engage this new area of research with the broader social sciences Libya in the Arab Spring Ramazan Erdağ, 2017-03-22 By examining Libya s security architecture before and after the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO intervention in 2011 this book aims to answer three questions First what were the security patterns in Libya within the Middle East security complex before the Arab Spring Second to what extent did the Arab Spring and the revolution and intervention processes in Libya affect this security architecture And third what are the implications of the Libyan revolution and the NATO intervention on regional security and on the security sub complexes of the Middle East in the post Arab Spring era The author addresses these issues by providing a micro level analysis of amity enmity patterns power distribution and external power interests Legal Phantoms Susan Bibler Coutin, Jennifer M. Chacón, Stephen Lee, 2024-01-30 The 2012 Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals DACA program was supposed to be a stepping stone a policy innovation announced by the White House designed to put pressure on Congress for a broader lasting set of legislative changes Those changes never materialized and the people who hoped to benefit from them have been forced to navigate a tense and contradictory policy landscape ever since haunted by these unfulfilled promises Legal Phantoms tells their story After Congress failed to pass a comprehensive immigration bill in 2013 President Obama pivoted in 2014 to supplementing DACA with a deferred action program known as DAPA for the parents of citizens and lawful permanent residents and a DACA expansion DACA in 2014 But challenges from Republican led states prevented even these programs from going into effect Interviews with would be applicants immigrant rights advocates and government officials reveal how such failed immigration reform efforts continue to affect not only those who had hoped to benefit but their families communities and the country in which they have made an uneasy home Out of the ashes of these lost dreams though people find their own paths forward through uncharted legal territory with creativity and resistance Red, White, and

Black Robert L. Woodson, Sr.,2021-05-11 In the rush to redefine the place of black Americans in contemporary society many radical activists and academics have mounted a campaign to destroy traditional American history and replace it with a politicized version that few would recognize According to the new radical orthodoxy the United States was founded as a racist nation and everything that has happened throughout our history must be viewed through the lens of the systemic oppression of black people Rejecting this false narrative a collection of the most prominent and respected black scholars and thinkers has come together to correct the record and tell the true story of black Americans in all its complexity diversity of experience and poignancy Collectively they paint a vivid picture of black people living the grand American experience however bumpy the road may be along the way But rather than a people apart blacks are woven into the united whole that makes this nation unique in history Featuring Essays by John Sibley Butler Jason D Hill Coleman Cruz Hughes John McWhorter Clarence Page Wilfred Reilly Shelby Steele Carol M Swain Dean Nelson Charles Love Rev Corey Brook Stephen L Harris Harold A Black Stephanie Deutsch Yaya J Fanusie Ian Rowe John Wood Jr Joshua Mitchell Robert Cherry Rev DeForest Black Soaries Jr Civil War? Interstate War? Hybrid War? Jakob Hauter,2021-04-20 This volume of collected papers takes stock of what has become known about the war in eastern Ukraine s Donets Basin Donbas between April 2014 and mid 2020 It provides an introduction to the conflict and illustrates the key point of contention in the academic debate surrounding it the question whether this war is primarily an internal Ukrainian phenomenon or the result of a covert Russian invasion The contributions by recognized specialists from Ukraine Russia Germany and Japan offer multifaceted views and insights into this long lasting conflict for both expert readers and those who are new to the topic The volume s contributors are Tymofii Brik Jakob Hauter Sanshiro Hosaka Yuriy Matsiyevsky Nikolay Mitrokhin Maximilian Kranich and Ulrich Schneckener A Review of the Landscape Conservation Cooperatives National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Division on Earth and Life Studies,Board on Agriculture and Natural Resources,Board on Atmospheric Sciences and Climate,Committee on the Evaluation of the Landscape Conservation Cooperatives,2016-11-28 The United States tradition of conserving fish wildlife habitats and cultural resources dates to the mid 19th century States have long sought to manage fish and wildlife species within their borders whereas many early federal conservation efforts focused on setting aside specific places as parks sanctuaries or reserves With advances in landscape ecology over the past quarter century conservation planners scientists and practitioners began to stress the importance of conservation efforts at the scale of landscapes and seascapes These larger areas were thought to harbor relatively large numbers of species that are likely to maintain population viability and sustain ecological processes and natural disturbance regimes often considered critical factors in conserving biodiversity By focusing conservation efforts at the level of whole ecosystems and landscape practitioners can better attempt to conserve the vast majority of species in a particular ecosystem Successfully addressing the large scale interlinked problems associated with landscape degradation will necessitate a planning process that bridges different scientific disciplines and across sectors as well as an understanding of complexity uncertainty and the local context of conservation work The landscape approach aims to develop shared conservation priorities across jurisdictions and across many resources to create a single collaborative conservation effort that can meet stakeholder needs Conservation of habitats species ecosystem services and cultural resources in the face of multiple stressors requires governance structures that can bridge the geographic and jurisdictional boundaries of the complex socio ecological systems in which landscape level conservation occurs The Landscape Conservation Cooperatives LCC Network was established to complement and add value to the many ongoing state tribal federal and nongovernmental efforts to address the challenge of conserving species habitats ecosystem services and cultural resources in the face of large scale and long term threats including climate change A Review of the Landscape Conservation Cooperatives evaluates the purpose goals and scientific merits of the LCC program within the context of similar programs and whether the program has resulted in measurable improvements in the health of fish wildlife and their habitats

Exclusion and Inclusion in International Migration: Power, Resistance and Identity Armağan Teke Lloyd, 2019-04-30

People on the move face new barriers in a globalizing world Some of these barriers are related with the rise of an increasingly security oriented approach towards international migrants Notwithstanding the forces of globalization states have maintained their monopoly power over whom to admit and whom to deny within their borders In other words they remain the sovereign authority regulating the entry and exit of people However in recent years a number of states have singled out international immigration as the greatest political and social threat to their cultural and national security The securitization of immigration is founded upon the premise that the international movement of people represents an exceptional risk for the survival of the nation and this is often associated with terrorism instability and criminality The securitization of immigration is also based on the idea that the traditional authority vested in states to regulate immigration is somehow insufficient and needs to be enhanced These assumptions correspond with a real policy shift in some countries such as the United States where the government is planning to spend approximately 23 Billion Dollars on border security and immigration enforcement in 2019 alone This edited volume is an exploration of the global landscapes inhabited by refugees and labour migrants although the focus is largely on the former Despite the fact that most of the empirical studies are drawn from within Europe the book also includes research on Nepal Australia the Middle East and Japan in order to reveal the truly global dimensions of migration and the regimes governing this Content INTRODUCTION by Arma an Teke Lloyd PART A Ideology and Governance of Migration CHAPTER 1 Coming to Terms with Liberal Democracy by the Populist Radical Right Parties of Western Europe Evidence from European Parliament Speeches over Minorities and Migration by Caner Tekin CHAPTER 2 A Forest with many trees Mapping migration governance and the dispersion of authority in Europe by Lisa Marie Borrelli Rebecca Mavin and Giorgia Trasciani CHAPTER 3 Policing Migrants in Transit and Upon Arrival The Bordering Tactic of Integration in Austria and Germany by Olivia Johnson PART B Regulations Suspension of Human Rights CHAPTER 4

perceived as having a political dimension Building on the concept of cultural statecraft the authors present a broad and nuanced view of how Russia sees the role of culture in its external relations how this shapes the image of Russia and the ways in which this cultural statecraft is received by foreign audiences The expert team of contributors consider what choices are made in fostering this agenda how Russian state authorities see the purpose and limits of various cultural instruments to what extent can the authorities shape these instruments what domains have received more attention and become more politicised and what fields have remained more autonomous The methodological research design of the book as a whole is a comparative case study comparing the nature of Russian cultural statecraft across time target countries and diverse cultural domains It will be of interest to scholars and students of Russian foreign policy and external relations and those working on the role of culture in world politics

Everyday War Greta Lynn Uehling, 2023-02-15 Everyday War provides an accessible lens through which to understand what noncombatant civilians go through in a country at war What goes through the mind of a mother who must send her child to school across a minefield or the men who belong to groups of volunteer body collectors In Ukraine such questions have been part of the daily calculus of life Greta Uehling engages with the lives of ordinary people living in and around the armed conflict over Donbas that began in 2014 and shows how conventional understandings of war are incomplete In Ukraine landscapes filled with death and destruction prompted attentiveness to human vulnerabilities and the cultivation of everyday interpersonal peace Uehling explores a constellation of social practices where ethics of care were in operation People were also drawn into the conflict in an everyday form of war that included provisioning fighters with military equipment they purchased themselves smuggling insulin and cutting ties to former friends Each chapter considers a different site where care can produce interpersonal peace or its antipode everyday war Bridging the fields of political geography international relations peace and conflict studies and anthropology Everyday War considers where peace can be cultivated at an everyday level

At the Edges of Citizenship Kate Hepworth, 2016-04-22 Proposing a new dynamic conception of citizenship this book argues against understandings of citizenship as a collection of rights that can be either possessed or endowed and demonstrates it is an emergent condition that has temporal and spatial dimensions Furthermore citizenship is shown to be continually and contingently reconstituted through the struggles between those considered insiders and outsiders Significantly these struggles do not result in a clear division between citizens and non citizens but in a multiplicity of states that are at once included within and excluded from the political community These liminal states of citizenship are elaborated in relation to three specific forms of non citizenship the respectable illegal the intimate foreigner and the abject citizen Each of these modalities of citizenship corresponds to either the figure of the clandestino or the nomad as invoked in the 2008 Italian Security Package and a second set of laws commonly referred to as the Nomad Emergency Decree Exploring how this legislation affected and was negotiated by individuals and groups who were constituted as objects of security author Kate Hepworth focuses on the first hand experience of individuals deemed threats to the nation Situated within the field of human geography the book draws on literature from citizenship studies critical security studies and migration studies to show how processes of securitisation and irregularisation work to delimit between citizens and non citizens as well as between legitimate and illegitimate outsiders Bordering the Middle East Daniel

Meier, 2020-05-21 This volume focuses on the influence that borders in the Middle East can have on actors identity building as well as how local national or transnational actors re define borders and boundaries The Middle East is facing a political crisis revealed by the Arab uprisings that is affecting states borders in a paradoxical way while local communal or tribal dissent tends to contest international borders states are trying to affirm their control over national territory in building border fences Focusing on borders in their materiality as well as their symbolic dimensions their representations may help with reappraising the region s own history the local national specificities as well as regional global constraints affecting borderlands and those who cross borders be they workers migrants or jihadists In this book six case studies will provide insights on state community relationships through the lens of border issues in the Levant and the Gulf The theoretical framework provided by the border studies conceptual tools allows authors to delve into the process of bordering de bordering and re bordering which is affecting the region raising questions on sovereignty authority and the political legitimacy of the regimes This book was originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics
