Unbounding Europe Ilaria Giglioli,2025-09-15 At a time of global border fortification and rising nationalisms Unbounding Europe analyzes the potential of Mediterranean borderlands to offer alternative models of belonging Drawing on ethnographic and archival research Ilaria Giglioli writes about relations between Sicilians and Tunisians and how they negotiate relationships of proximity and difference in multiple arenas of life She argues that histories of marginalization within the nation state do not automatically make borderlands inclusive for migrants Understanding the interplay of different degrees of marginality is key to identify how solidarity movements can emerge and be effective Giglioli argues that depoliticized celebrations of cross Mediterranean coexistence ignore longstanding inequalities and reinforce symbolic hierarchies between Sicilians and Tunisians She stresses that recognizing and addressing these inequalities is key to developing a transformative politics of solidarity Rather than idealize intermediate border spaces or subjects Unbounding Europe asserts that it is more effective to reconstruct histories of material and symbolic boundary drawing to demonstrate the contingency and mutability of borders

Dilemmas of Educational Ethics Meira Levinson,Jacob Fay,2019-01-02 Educators and policy makers confront challenging questions of ethics justice and equity on a regular basis Should teachers retain a struggling student if it means she will most certainly drop out Should an assignment plan favor middle class families if it means strengthening the school system for all These everyday dilemmas are both utterly ordinary and immensely challenging yet there are few opportunities and resources to help educators think through the ethical issues at stake Drawing on research and methods developed in the Justice in Schools project at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Dilemmas of Educational Ethics introduces a new interdisciplinary approach to achieving practical wisdom in education one that honors the complexities inherent in educational decision making and encourages open discussion of the values and principles we should collectively be trying to realize in educational policy and practice At the heart of the book are six richly described realistic accounts of ethical dilemmas that have arisen in education in recent years paired with responses written by noted philosophers empirical researchers policy makers and practitioners including Pedro Noguera Howard Gardner Mary Pattillo Andres A Alonso Jamie Ahlberg Toby N Romer and Michael J Petrilli The editors illustrate how readers can use and adapt these cases and commentaries in schools and other settings in order to reach a difficult decision deepen their own understanding or to build teams around shared values

Congressional Record , Women After All

Melvin Konner, 2015-03-02 A sparkling thought provoking account of sexual differences Whether you're a man or a woman you'll find his conclusions gripping Jared Diamond There is a human genetic fluke that is surprisingly common due to a change in a key pair of chromosomes In the normal condition the two look the same but in this disorder one is malformed and shrunk beyond recognition The result is a shortened life span higher mortality at all ages an inability to reproduce premature hair loss and brain defects variously resulting in attention deficit hyperactivity conduct disorder hypersexuality and an enormous excess of both outward and self directed aggression It is called maleness Melvin Konner traces the arc of evolution to explain the relationships between women and men With patience and wit he explores the knotty question of whether men are necessary in the biological destiny of the human race He draws on multiple colorful examples from the natural world such as the mating habits of the octopus black widow angler fish and jacana and argues that maleness in humans is hardly necessary to the survival of the species In characteristically humorous and engaging prose Konner sheds light on our biologically different identities while noting the poignant exceptions that challenge the male female divide We meet hunter gatherers such as those in Botswana whose culture gave women a prominent place invented the working mother and respected women's voices around the fire Recent human history has upset this balance as a dense world of war fostered extreme male dominance But our species has been recovering over the past two centuries and an unstoppable move toward equality is afoot It will not be the end of men but it will be the end of male supremacy and a better wiser world for women and men alike

Hardball Leadership Mark Forner,2016-08-16 How do you sufficiently progress beyond the status quo when an entire rural community views the status quo as sufficient progress Educating children in poverty remains the most important educational challenge of our time What few people know is this the rate of child poverty in our nation s rural communities is actually higher than it is in our country's urban centers

Hardball Leadership is a best practices guide for rural school leaders who are passionate about closing the achievement gap and committed to leading their districts to significant academic improvement. Based upon original research that examined the leadership practices of effective rural superintendents who led their districts to dramatic academic improvement, this book's insights include:

- Establishing a strong academic culture where every student can and will be successful
- Developing a system for improving teacher instructional performance
- Fostering an academically focused partnership with the board of education
- Managing school-based controversy in a productive way
- Building and sustaining a financially strong district

This leadership handbook will help rural school leaders build an academic pathway that will lead their students towards a happy and prosperous life.

The Bill Gates Problem Tim Schwab, 2023-11-16 A NEW YORK TIMES EDITORS CHOICE

Nobody who comes away from reading The Bill Gates Problem will look at him in the same way. The Times You know him as the founder of Microsoft, the philanthropic, kind-hearted billionaire who has donated endless funds to good causes around the world. But there's another side to Bill Gates. In this fearless groundbreaking investigation, Tim Schwab offers readers a counter narrative, one where Gates has used his monopolistic approach in business to amass a stunning level of control over public policy, scientific research, and the news media. Whether he is pushing new educational standards in America, health reforms in India, or industrialized agriculture in Africa, Gates's unbridled social experimentation has shown itself to be not only undemocratic but also ineffective. All of which begs the question: why should the super rich be able to transform their wealth into political power, and just how far can they go?

An extraordinary and detailed work of investigative journalism. The Telegraph

Handbook of International and Cross-Cultural Leadership Research Processes Yulia Tolstikov-Mast, Franziska Bieri, Jennie L. Walker, 2021-11-29

An invaluable contribution to the area of leadership studies, the Handbook of International and Cross Cultural Leadership Research Processes: Perspectives, Practice, Instruction brings together renowned authors with diverse cultural, academic, and practitioner backgrounds to provide a comprehensive overview and analysis of all stages of the research process. The handbook centers around authors' international research reflections and experiences, with chapters that reflect and analyze various research experiences in order to help readers learn about the integrity of each stage of the international leadership research process, with examples and discussions.

Part I introduces philosophical traditions of the leadership field and discusses how established leadership and followership theories and approaches sometimes fail to capture leadership realities of different cultures and societies. Part II focuses on methodological challenges and opportunities. Scholars share insights on their research practices in different stages of international and cross-cultural studies. Part III is forward-looking, in preparing readers to respond to complex realities of the leadership field, teaching, learning, publishing, and applying international and cross-cultural leadership research standards.

with integrity The unifying thread amongst all the chapters is a shared intent to build knowledge of diverse and evolving leadership practices and phenomena across cultures and societies The handbook is an excellent resource for a broad audience including scholars across disciplines and fields such as psychology management history cognitive science economics anthropology sociology and medicine as well as educators consultants and graduate and doctoral students who are interested in understanding authentic leadership practices outside of the traditional Western paradigm
