2014 Final Creative Arts Memo:

Handbook of Arts-Based Research Patricia Leavy, 2019-02-27 The handbook is heavy on methods chapters in different genres There are chapters on actual methods that include methodological instruction and examples There is also ample attention given to practical issues including evaluation writing ethics and publishing With respect to writing style contributors have made their chapters reader friendly by limiting their use of jargon providing methodological instruction when appropriate and offering robust research examples from their own work and or others Developing Theatre in the Global South Nic Leonhardt, Christopher B. Balme, 2024-04-09 Drawing on new research from the ERC project Developing Theatre this collection presents innovative institutional approaches to the theatre historiography of the Global South since 1945 Covering perspectives from Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as Eastern Europe the chapters explore how US philanthropy international organisations and pan African festivals all contributed to the globalisation and institutionalisation of the performing arts in the Global South During the Cultural Cold War the Global North intervened in and promoted forms of cultural infrastructure that were deemed adaptable to any environment This form of technopolitics impacted the construction of national theatres the introduction of new pedagogical tools and the invention of the workshop as a format The networks of experts responsible for this foreground seminal figures both celebrated Augusto Boal Efua Sutherland but also lesser known Albert Botbol Severino Montano Metin And who contributed to the worldwide theatrical epistemic community of the postwar years Developing Theatre in the Global South investigates the institutional factors that led to the emergence of professional theatre in the postwar period throughout the decolonising world The book s institutional and transnational approach enables theatre studies to overcome its still strong national and local focus on plays and productions and connect it to current discourses in transnational and global history The Hangover after the Handover Helena Y.W. Wu, 2020-09-12 As a former British colony 1842 1997 and then a Special Administrative Region Hong Kong has witnessed at all times how relations are formed dissolved and refashioned amidst changing powers identities and narratives given the many names it possessed over the course of history from Barren Rock Fragrant Harbour Port of Incense Pearl of the Orient Asia s World City Vertical City Floating City to City at the End of Time among others In the post handover post hangover years the circulation reverberation and reception of cultural symbols old and new such as the King of Kowloon Song Emperor s Terrace and Lion Rock have revealed the multifaceted appearances and connotations of Hong Kong s local At the intersections between real life events cultural production and consumption and multiple voices the book extracts and examines the local relations between the inhabitants of the territory and the human and nonhuman agencies that stand or that have once stood for Hong Kong across time and through space Via the lens of places things and cultural icons the book offers lessons to learn from Hong Kong by opening up manifold postcolonial translocal and planetary perspectives to confront and interrogate the volatile experiences in the new millennia unprecedented since the Cold War period of the twentieth century shared by Hong Kong and other regions After all what does it mean or take to live in the contemporary world when the local global and national are constantly given new meanings Recreating Creativity, Reinventing Inventiveness Nikos Koutras, Niloufer Selvadurai, 2024-04-02 As artificial intelligence AI is increasingly used to generate inventions and creative works a critical question to be addressed is whether intellectual property IP laws should protect such works This book examines the critical question of whether intellectual property laws should protect works generated by artificial intelligence If we do not wish to use IP laws to protect such works how can we still support research development and innovation in society If we do wish to use IP laws to protect such works should the copyright patents and other IP rights attach to the human creator of the AI technology or the AI system The book explores these compelling societal economic and legal issues The authors evaluate the continuing relevance of existing laws explore the divergent approaches being debated by nations around the world and present visions for change The book will enable both lawyers and non lawyers to reimagine governance frameworks to create laws that equitably balance the interests of creators investors and end users of AI generated works
