Cyberspace in Peace and War Martin Libicki,2016-10-15 This book is written to be a comprehensive guide to cybersecurity and cyberwar policy and strategy developed for a one or two semester class for students of public policy including political science law business etc Although written from a U S perspective most of its contents are globally relevant It is written essentially in four sections The first chapters 1 5 describes how compromises of computers and networks permit unauthorized parties to extract information from such systems cyber espionage and or to force these systems to misbehave in ways that disrupt their operations or corrupt their workings The section examines notable hacks of systems fundamental challenges to cybersecurity e g the lack of forced entry the measure countermeasure relationship including the role of malware and various broad approaches to cybersecurity The second chapters 6 9 describes what government policies can and as importantly cannot be expected to do to improve a nation s cybersecurity thereby leaving leave countries less susceptible to cyberattack by others Among its focus areas are approaches to countering nation scale attacks the cost to victims of broad scale cyberespionage and how to balance intelligence and cybersecurity needs The third chapters 10 15 looks at cyberwar in the context of military operations Describing cyberspace as the 5th domain of warfare feeds the notion that lessons learned from other domains e g land sea apply to cyberspace In reality cyberwar a campaign of disrupting corrupting computers networks is quite different it rarely breaks things can only be useful against a sophisticated adversary competes against cyber espionage and has many first strike characteristics The fourth chapters 16 35 examines strategic cyberwar within the context of state on state relations It examines what strategic cyberwar and threats thereof can do against whom and how countries can respond It then considers the possibility and limitations of a deterrence strategy to modulate such threats covering credibility attribution thresholds and punishment as well as whether denial can deter It continues by examining sub rosa attacks where neither the effects nor the attacker are obvious to the public the role of proxy cyberwar the scope for brandishing cyberattack capabilities including in a nuclear context the role of narrative and signals in a conflict in cyberspace questions of strategic stability and norms for conduct in cyberspace particularly in the context of Sino U S relations and the role played by international law The last chapter considers the future of cyberwar Addressing

Chatterjee,2020-05-11 This book acquaints readers with a range of techniques to help them effectively identify record map analyze and report on patterns in various dimensions of human development HD with spatial scales down to the village level It is impossible to capture HD at the local and global scale with only a single index because differences in HD at the international scale are caused by general factors whereas local scale differences are influenced by specific factors This book offers a variety of methods for scientifically mapping HD at any spatial scale It covers how to rationally select variables how to test the models how to validate the results and how to analyze them For this purpose it employs a case study on an Indian district The socio economic factors regulating the patterns of HD are now more complex than they were only a few decades ago making it essential to incorporate newer models in order to successfully replicate the real world situation Accordingly the book offers essential methodological tools techniques for mapping HD It sheds new light on a handful of statistical multivariate analysis and machine learning algorithms that are rarely used in the social sciences when dealing with HD yet have sound mathematical and statistical bases These techniques can be successfully used for predictive analysis in the earth natural sciences decision sciences and management disciplines and are equally effective in terms of capturing predicting and projecting the composite HD landscape This book will especially benefit two groups of readers firstly HD practitioners who want to find out why some areas are doing better than others by exploring the complex interactions of spatially linked variables with different HD parameters And secondly practitioners in other branches of the social sciences who are not concerned with HD but are looking for hands on training with techniques they can apply in their respective field of spatial investigations Local Content Requirements Lili Yan Ing,Gene Grossman,2023-11-06 As anti globalization and geopolitical tensions continue to rise the use of local content requirements LCRs around the world has become more noticeable than ever before The reasons for adopting LCRs range from ensuring domestic supply availability job creation and increasing value added to safeguarding national security Ing and Grossman examine country specific as well as firm product level exercises to explain how LCRs reduce fair competition resulting in lower trade and productivity which ultimately lowers world economic output and overall human welfare Countries around the world are investigated with specific attention to the US China Indonesia and resource intensive countries including mining intensive ones The book also presents product and firm level analyses answering the question of why countries adopted LCRs and how LCRs actually affect the world economy This book is a useful resource that will interest policymakers researchers and advanced undergraduates interested in international trade industrial policy political economy labour economics and development economics Food-Energy-Water Systems: Achieving Climate Resilience and Sustainable Development in the 21st Century Charles Vörösmarty, Richard Lawford, Pietro Elia Campana, Donald Wuebbles, Graham Jewitt, 2024-01-23 extreme weather will mean ongoing challenges to the capacity of these sectors to support human well being grow the economy and provide critical environmental services Society has yet to evaluate the resilience of FEWS to climate environmental and management stresses as it shapes strategies to support sustainable development over the next decades These issues constitute a quintessential interdisciplinary research challenge and require a well structured science agenda and supportive information services for implementing key findings that governments and stakeholders can adopt Integrated policy pathways require usable research findings applications models real time information systems and decision support systems In addition stakeholder engagement is essential to communicate the benefits and results of these approaches and to engage appropriate groups in their implementation
