2014 June Zimsec Exam Timetable:

UN Peacekeeping in Africa Kwame Akonor, 2016-11-17 This timely volume explores the dark side of United Nations UN Peacekeeping in Africa when rather than help establish a rule of law in the host country they become perpetrators of crime The work of the UN peacekeepers is generally comprised of police and military personnel from countries who contribute voluntarily to assist war torn countries create conditions for lasting peace Overall these peacekeeping efforts are perceived positively with volunteers giving their time and risking their lives to bring normalcy and peace to civilians in countries with conflict In fact there are cases where UN Peacekeepers are sometimes the victims of violent crimes and need security and protection themselves Although instances of abuse are not widespread and are certainly not isolated to Africa this work focuses on Africa because there is a high concentration of UN Peacekeepers there and lessons learned can be applied to other regions The instances of abuse cover serious crimes including sexual abuse and exploitation child and arms trafficking and corruption all of some of the most vulnerable populations in the world at the time Although these instances are not extensive they remain a fundamental problem because there is no existing mechanism for prosecution in the international area it is only the troops home country not the UN who has the right to exercise criminal jurisdiction The also undermine the good work that UN Peacekeepers are doing all over the world This work is concerned with highlighting why these instances occur and why specific forms of abuse are more prevalent than others It also discusses how to prevent abuse and violations from happening in the first place and creating a culture of change and accountability Finally taking into account cultural and legal systems from troops home countries the author considers the ways that local rules can be aligned with international standards In will be of interest to researchers in Criminology and Criminal Justice International Relations Sociology and Demography Public Health Comparative Law and other related disciplines Values, Interests and Power: South African foreign policy in uncertain times Daniel D. Bradlow, Elizabeth Sidiropoulos, 2020-01-01 About the publication South Africa s foreign policy makers are facing a substantial challenge From the advent of the democratic era in 1994 through to the early 2000s South Africa was a highly respected actor in international affairs with a number of impressive accomplishments in the areas of global governance peacekeeping and international norm entrepreneurship However since that time the country s international standing has declined The value based and innovative foreign policy that earned the early post apartheid South African government such great international respect has been replaced by a more transactional and tactically driven approach to international affairs The country s position as Africa s leading economy and voice in international affairs is increasingly being challenged by other African states This book explores how South Africa can develop a foreign policy strategy that is appropriate to the uncertain times in which we live and that both helps the country address its overwhelming domestic challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment and regain its former high international reputation The contributors to this book offer analyses and proposals for developing such a strategy within the context of the country s constitutional order and institutional constraints and that addresses the diverse and complex global and regional aspects of the country's international relations Endorsements In this valuable book which should be on every diplomat's bookshelf some of SA's foremost experts offer the government frank and compelling advice on how to conduct a much better foreign policy over the next decade The authors challenge Pretoria to muster all the country's assets and skills and not just those of the ruling party to pursue only the most important foreign policy goals And to be guided always by the lodestar of the Constitution Peter Fabricius Foreign Policy Analyst former Foreign Affairs Editor at Independent Newspapers In this one of a kind book of twelve chapters by emerging and experienced scholars the authors probe into factors shaping South African foreign policy lessons learned and the future strategy of the country's foreign policy in an ever changing world A compelling read for policy makers and scholars Ambassador Prof Iqbal Jhazbhay University of South Africa Member of the ANC's N E C International Relations Sub Committee its breadth will engage newcomers its insights will be useful to scholars and practitioners alike Professor Amrita Narlikar President German Institute for Global and Area Studies GIGA This book offers compelling insights on South Africa's foreign policy These varied pieces provide textured and critical perspectives that may help open up an avenue to re imagine South Africa's foreign policy afresh in the post Zuma years It is a compendium that should appeal to scholars of international relations practitioners of foreign policy and the broader policy community Professor Mzukiso Qobo Head School of Governance University of the Witwatersrand This nuanced and richly detailed volume offers the reader superb analyses of South Africa's foreign policy The authors contributions present both theoretical considerations and specific policy recommendations which make the book highly useful for both scholars and policy makers Each chapter is thus certain to significantly contribute to promoting the public debate about South Africa's place in the world Professor Oliver Stuenkel Funda o Getulio Vargas FGV Table of Contents ACKNOWLEDGMENTS CONTRIBUTORS Defining a South African foreign policy for the 2020s Challenges constraints and opportunities by Daniel D Bradlow Elizabeth Sidiropoulos Luanda Mpungose Foreign policy under the Constitution by Jonathan Klaaren Daiyaan Halim The courts and foreign policy powers by Nicole Fritz Overcoming bureaucratic and institutional challenges in South African foreign policy making by Arina Muresan Francis Kornegay South Africa's security interests in Africa Recommendations for the 2020s by Aditi Lalbahadur Anthoni van Nieuwkerk South Africa's peace and security interests beyond the continent by Garth Le Pere Lisa Otto Regional integration and industrial development in Southern Africa Where does South Africa stand by Maria Nkhonjera Simon Roberts South Africa and African continental economic integration in the 2020s by Lumkile Mondi Negotiating climate change in an increasingly uncertain global landscape Is there light at the end of the tunnel by Ellen Davies Saliem Fakir Melisha Nagiah Reforming the institutions of global economic governance and South Africa by Cleo Rose Innes Challenges and opportunities for non traditional diplomacy by Fritz Nganje Letlhogonolo Letshele Lessons learned and the path forward by Daniel Bradlow Elizabeth Sidiropoulos AnaSofia Bizos APPENDIX INDEX JKSSB Accounts

Worshipping Politics Luke J. Goble, 2017-05-08 It is not a secret that the political system in the United States is broken Unfortunately many Christians are ambivalent about or worse yet contributors to that dysfunction Many know they should do something but don t know what to do or how to do it Drawing on insights from history theology and culture Worshipping Politics reframes the relationship between faith and politics as one of intentional formation instead of divisive decision making When we focus on how we are formed as people and the church in relationship to our various communities instead of what we think and believe in relation to culture and society it changes the way we engage the world Unlearning our faulty emphasis on the power of our own intellect and learning how to be formed in grace and love for the world through our everyday lives just might make a different kind of politics possible

Discretionary maize policy interventions in Malawi Edelman, Brent, 2016-07-28 This study assesses the efficacy of maize export bans in improving food security in Malawi and of minimum farm gate prices in increasing the incomes of Malawian smallholder farmers It relies primarily on price and trade flow analysis using secondary data In brief the analysis shows that neither tool has been particularly effective in recent years in achieving their stated policy objectives On the contrary both maize export bans and minimum farm gate prices have been mostly non binding or even counterproductive in their effects
