Jon Agar, Jacob Ward

2014 November Paper 1 Geography Memo:

Handbook on Wealth and the Super-Rich Iain Hay, Jonathan V Beaverstock, 2016-01-29 Fewer than 100 people own and control more wealth than 50 per cent of the world's population The Handbook on Wealth and the Super Rich is a landmark multidisciplinary evaluation of both the lives and lifestyles of the super rich as well as the processes that underpin super wealth generation and its unequal distribution Drawing on international case studies leading experts from across the social sciences offer 22 accessible and coherently organized chapters which critically analyse a range of topics including the legitimacy of extreme wealth from a moral economic perspective biographies of illicit super wealth London's housing markets how the very wealthy fly the environmental consequences of super rich lives crafting immigration policies to attract the rich Students and scholars studying a host of topics such as development studies economics geography history political science and sociology will find this book eminently engaging It will also be of great interest to public commentators charitable organizations and NGOs concerned with wealth and income distributions Florida Springs Christopher F. Meindl, 2024-10-15 This book provides a clear and comprehensive overview of the geography history science and politics of Florida's freshwater springs informing readers about the deep past and current issues facing these natural wonders of the state Ukraine Over the Edge Gordon M. Hahn, 2018-02-08 The Ukrainian crisis that dominated headlines in fall 2013 was decades in the making Two great schisms shaped events one within Ukraine its western and southeastern parts divided along cultural and political lines the other was driven by geopolitical factors Competition between Russia and the West exacerbated Ukraine's divisions This study focuses on the historical background and complex causality of the crisis from the rise of mass demonstrations on Kiev's Maidan Nezalezhnosti Independence Square to the making of the post revolt regime In the context of a new cold war the author sheds light on the role of radical Ukrainian nationalists and neofascists in the February 2014 snipers massacre the ouster of President Viktor Yanukovich and Russia's seizure of Crimea and involvement in the civil war in the eastern region of Donbass A Global Idea Mayssoun Sukarieh, 2023-08-15 A Global Idea outlines how youth as shown by the Arab Spring uprisings and subsequent state responses became a prominent social and political category during the first two decades of the twenty first century in the Middle East Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork interview data and textual analysis Mayssoun Sukarieh explains that the spread of youth as an important category is linked to the operation of a global youth development complex a diverse transnational network of state private sector civil society and international development aid organizations that worked through key urban areas such as Washington DC Amman and Dubai In its analysis of the arrival extension and embedding of the youth development complex in the Middle East during this period A Global Idea addresses a broader question that is of global and not just regional concern How are certain ideas that are central to the working and reproduction of global capitalism able to travel the world so that they are found virtually everywhere Russia and the New World Disorder Bobo Lo, 2015-08-17 The Russian annexation of Crimea was one of the great strategic shocks of the past twenty five years For many in the West Moscow's actions in early 2014 marked the end of illusions about cooperation and the return to geopolitical and ideological confrontation Russia for so long a peripheral presence had become the central actor in a new global drama In this groundbreaking book renowned scholar Bobo Lo analyzes the broader context of the crisis by examining the interplay between Russian foreign policy and an increasingly anarchic international environment He argues that Moscow's approach to regional and global affairs reflects the tension between two very different worlds the perceptual and the actual The Kremlin highlights the decline of the West a resurgent Russia and the emergence of a new multipolar order But this idealized view is contradicted by a world disorder that challenges core assumptions about the dominance of great powers and the utility of military might Its lesson is that only those states that embrace change will prosper in the twenty first century A Russia able to redefine itself as a modern power would exert a critical influence in many areas of international politics But a Russia that rests on an outdated sense of entitlement may end up instead as one of the principal casualties of global transformation

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations

Dictators Without Borders Alexander A. Cooley, John Heathershaw, 2017-02-07 A penetrating look into the unrecognized and unregulated links between autocratic regimes in Central Asia and centers of power and wealth throughout the West Weak corrupt and politically unstable the former Soviet republics of Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan are dismissed as isolated and irrelevant to the outside world But are they This hard hitting book argues that Central Asia is in reality a globalization leader with extensive involvement in economics politics and security dynamics beyond its borders Yet Central Asia's international activities are mostly hidden from view with disturbing implications for world security Based on years of research and involvement in the region Alexander Cooley and John Heathershaw reveal how business networks elite bank accounts overseas courts third party brokers and Western lawyers connect Central Asia's supposedly isolated leaders with global power centers The authors also uncover widespread Western participation in money laundering bribery foreign lobbying by autocratic governments and the exploiting of legal loopholes within Central Asia Riveting and important this book exposes the global connections of a troubled region that must no longer be ignored

Histories of Technology, the Environment and Modern Britain Jon Agar, Jacob Ward, 2018-04-09 Histories of Technology the Environment and Modern Britain brings together historians with a wide range of interests to take a uniquely wide lens view of how technology and the environment have been intimately and irreversibly entangled in Britain over the last 300 years It combines for the first time two perspectives with much to say about Britain since the industrial revolution the history of technology and environmental history Technologies are modified environments just as nature is to varying extents engineered Furthermore technologies and our living and non living environment are both predominant material forms of organisation and self organisation that surround and make us Both have changed over time in intersecting ways Technologies discussed in the collection include bulldozers submarine cables automobiles flood barriers medical devices museum displays and biotechnologies Environments investigated include bogs cities farms places of natural beauty and pollution land and sea The book explores this diversity but also offers an integrated framework for understanding these intersections

China and Its Small Neighbors Sung Chull Kim, 2023-03-01 In China and Its Small Neighbors Sung Chull Kim examines the political implications of the economic asymmetry between China and its small neighbors part of wider changes in international relations brought about by the rise of China While being critical of the current trend that focuses on the China U S rivalry alone Kim argues that a microanalysis of China s advances toward its neighbors is a guide to understanding the trajectory of China s expanding influence and transitions in world politics more broadly Economic asymmetry as seen in trade concentration non transparency and reliance on bilateral aid has made China s small neighbors vulnerable on the political front thus generating potential threats to their sovereignty and independence Because China has the upper hand in the bilateral relationships these weak states practice dual core hedging as a strategy for survival They hedge on China for expected economic benefits and at the same time hedge against their powerful neighbor to mitigate the risks involved in that hedging on Each small state s mode of hedging depends on its degree of vulnerability and its availability of policy instruments such as multilateral institutions and bilateral partnerships with extra regional powers The United States and the End of British Colonial Rule in Africa, 1941-1968 James P. Hubbard, 2014-01-10 At the end of World War II Britain possessed a vast African empire encompassing nearly 27 million square miles about 10 times larger than Britain itself But by 1965 only three small African territories remained under British control all of which would become independent before the end of 1968 This book examines the swift demise of Britain's African empire looking particularly at the role played by the United States in bringing the empire to an end It reveals how the United States was anti colonial without being actively pro independence concluding that the country's policies and actions combined with its postwar dominance directly and indirectly contributed to the political economic and social transformation of Africa Sticky Power Daniel Haberly, Dariusz Wójcik, 2022 This volume investigates the durable nature of financial institutions from the Middle Ages to the present day and argues that reform should take place through innovation in institutional design rather than regulation Challenging Southeast Asian Development Jonathan Rigg, 2015-07-30 Over the course of the last half century the growth economies of Southeast Asia Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam have transformed themselves into middle income countries This book looks at how the very success of these economies has bred new challenges novel problems and fresh tensions including the fact that particular individuals sectors and regions have been marginalised by these processes Contributing to discussions of policy implications the book melds endogenous and exogenous approaches to thinking about development paths re frames Asia's model's of growth and draws out the social environmental political and economic side effects that have arisen from growth An interesting analysis of the problems that come alongside development's achievements this book is an important contribution to Southeast Asian Studies Development Studies and Environmental Studies America's Moment Rework America, 2015-06-15 It is time for a new conversation Amid the biggest economic transformation in a century the challenge of our time is to make sure that all Americans benefit from the wave of digital revolutions around the world that have permeated and upended modern life Yet today's economic arguments seem stuck We need a new vision of a hopeful future and a new action agenda So many Americans are uncertain about the future How can there be so many paths to opportunity with so few people traveling them As a nation we have to understand what is required to help Americans succeed now and how to prepare our country for what comes next We have been here before A hundred years ago America experienced the greatest economic transformation and technological revolution in its history The transformation of the past twenty years as the world has moved through the information era into the digital age has turned our life and work upside down once again It is a time of tremendous change but also of tremendous possibility Rework America is a group of American leaders who know from experience the challenges we face and the potential solutions In America's Moment they suggest a practical agenda for an exciting future It is illustrated by people who are already showing the way and includes actions Americans can take today in their own communities preparing people to succeed using the reach of the Internet and data to innovate jobs and to reach new markets all over the world using technology to match employers and workers and transitioning to a no collar working world neither blue collar nor white collar Set against the history of how Americans succeeded once before in remaking their country America's Moment is about the future It describes how the same forces of change technology and a networked world can become tools that can open opportunity to everyone

The Economics of the Global Defence Industry Keith Hartley, Jean Belin, 2019-11-08 This book makes an original contribution to our knowledge of the world's major defence industries Experts from a wide range of different countries from the major economies of North America and Western Europe to developing economies and some unique cases such as China India Singapore South Africa and North Korea describe and analyse the structure conduct and performance of the defence industry in that country Each chapter opens with statistics on a key nation's defence spending its spending on defence R D and on procurement over the period 1980 to 2017 allowing for an analysis of industry changes following the end of the Cold War After the facts of each industry the authors describe and analyse the structure conduct and performance of the industry The analysis of structure includes discussions of entry conditions domestic monopoly oligopoly structures and opportunities for competition The section on conduct analyses price non price competition including private and state funded R D and performance incorporates profitability imports and exports together with spin offs and technical progress The conclusion explores the future prospects for each nation's defence industry Do defence industries have a future What might the future defence firm and industry look like in 50 years time This volume is a vital resource and reference for anyone interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations strategic studies and public procurement

Handbook on Cohesion Policy in the EU Simona Piattoni, Laura Polverari, 2016-08-26 This Handbook covers all major aspects of EU Cohesion policy one of the most significant areas of intervention of the European Union Over five parts It discusses this policy's history and governing principles the theoretical approaches from which it can be assessed the inter institutional and multi level dynamics that it tends to elicit its practical implementation and impact on EU member states its interactions with other EU policies and strategies and the cognitive maps and narratives with which it can be associated An absolute must for all students of the EU

PLATE: Product Lifetimes And The Environment Conny A. Bakker, 2017-11-15 Product lifetimes are critical for the circular economy resource efficiency waste reduction and low carbon strategies for sustainability and are therefore of interest to academics from many different disciplines as well as original equipment manufacturers OEMs and other stakeholders The challenges related to product lifetimes must be tackled from multiple perspectives making the sharing of knowledge and expertise from different disciplines particularly important This book presents papers from the second Product Lifetime and the Environment PLATE conference held in Delft the Netherlands in November 2017 The conference originated from the desire to bring together academic researchers working in the field of sustainability to benefit from each other's knowledge and further advance the field The book includes the 88 full papers delivered at the conference grouped according to the following 7 conference themes design for product longevity product lifetime optimization cultural perspectives on the throwaway society circular economy and product lifetimes business opportunities economic implications and marketing strategies consumer influences on product lifetimes and policy regulation and legislation The book will be of interest to all those concerned with sustainable consumption circular economy and resource efficiency Conflict Areas in the Balkans Pinar Yürür, Arda Özkan, 2020-10-27 The situation in the Balkans such as the solution to the status of Kosovo is currently the largest international political problem in Europe with the potential to burst into a world crisis regarding the Eastern Western relations On the other hand a successful solution to the problem in the Balkans could serve as a model for solving the Muslim Christian tensions elsewhere in the world It is the intention of this book to contribute proposals for solutions to the problems of Balkans The starting principle for the solutions to be effective is that they should come in a natural way from the people below and should not be enforced by the political elites from above Based on self determination of nations as a starting principle they should encourage intra regional cooperation among the regional entities economic cultural sport as a basis for political social understanding and cooperation secondly accelerate their economic political and social development and thirdly as a final step enable the inclusion of the Balkan countries into the European Union
