Dinah Blu Steven Freedman, A.B., M.S.,2011-02 Through their actions the lives of all the main characters become intertwined Each character is unique in terms of who and what they stand for Some are Black others White Some are Jews others Christians A vast chasm exists between the characters in terms of their social standing One's background influences how the character will behave and what his or her fate will be The characters in Dinah Blu while works of the author's imagination strive to be true to life In creating the characters I have gone beyond mere stereo typing in order for the characters to appear quiet real on the page The plot is built upon the experiences of the characters and it is the actions of the characters which define the work And there is a specific time frame when all these actions occur In keeping with my intent to deal with the themes which define a well written novel the characters experience many things over the course of time To describe each and every action which takes place in the novel would be too difficult However in keeping with the novel's intent race religion war justice love hate wealth poverty suffering joy pain happiness hope and despair are all explored through the various characters
